Express Trust In Vaccine

Even With Tests On Cutter Product Public Health Men Express Confidence

WASHINGTON (AP)—Public health authorities expressed anew today their confidence in the Salk polio vaccine, even as they checked the possibility that some batches from one of six makers may have been faulty.

Intensive tests were ordered after it was reported that eight children had been stricken by polio—one fatally—within a week of receiving their first polio shots. Four others suspected cases of the disease were reported.

In each case, the vaccine used was manufactured by the Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif., which said more than 750,000 doses of its product had been issued.

As a "precautionary measure," all further use of Cutter vaccine was ordered halted pending tests, and the inoculation program was stopped in most of the West Coast areas where it was supplied for free use in the schools.

But Surgeon General Leonard Scheele of the Public Health Service called for continuance of the program in other areas of the country, where vaccine supplied by five other drug firms have been used without reported incident.

"We believe that the immunization program against poliomyelitis should continue," he said in a statement, "and I urge that parents and children scheduled to take part in the vaccination program continue to follow their plans."

He said his own 7-year-old son will receive his first shot as scheduled early next month.

Meantime, federal and state authorities worked in California to determine whether it was faulty vaccine or merely coincidence which caused the polio cases at this time.

Benson Requests Governor's Help In Drought Plan

TUCUMCARI, N. M., (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson looked to the governors of 10 Great Plains states today for help in drafting a program that would maintain a "stable, prosperous and free agriculture" in areas now suffering from drought and dust storms.

Completing a two-day motor tour through distressed areas of Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico to get a close view of the situation, Benson invited the state chief executives to meet with him in Denver June 1 to draw blueprints for future governmental actions.

The invitations went to the governors of Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas.

Burns Not Serious After Explosion At Meadow Gold Plant

Paul F. Wensch, Jr., 1614 East Sixth, suffered burns over the front of his body in an accident with a milk condenser at Beatrice Foods plant at Fifth Street and South Ohio Wednesday morning.

Wensch's condition is described by Dr. Pete Siegel as "satisfactory." He suffered first and second degree burns over his arms, chest, abdomen and legs when the condenser lost its vacuum, broke the vacuum seal, and milk boiling at a temperature of near 165 degrees was thrown over him.

Plant Superintendent Cecil Monsees said Wensch was unable to get out of the way when the explosion occurred. He was admitted to Bothwell Hospital at about 11:30 a. m. Wednesday.

It Really Happened

Did you hear the thunder and the rain and see the lightning last night? Sedalia was visited by all three in the wee hours, to the tune of .11 of an inch.

Fair tonight. Cooler tonight. High Friday near 70. Low tonight near 45.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 57, 73 at 1 p. m., and 74 at 2 p. m.

The temperature one year ago today, high 63, low 55; two years ago, high 85, low 54; and three years ago, high 84, low 48.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 49.6, fall 4.

POLIO IS ATTACKED IN PETTIS—This was the scene of the Pettis County polio immunization station at Horace Mann school this morning. The clinic, the first in Pettis county, processed first and second grade students from the Sedalia area in an all day program. Dr. T. J. Hopkins headed the clinic with assistance from nurses, nurses aides and Grey Ladies. In the photo on the left, Belva Cantwell, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otwell L. Cantwell, 1628 Country Club Blvd., takes her polio vaccine shot from Dr. Hopkins. Belva was stricken with polio September, 1954, and her right leg was impaired as a result. In the center photo, John Foster, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Foster, 1422 South Kentucky, watches Dr. Pete Siegel inject the shot. Judy Christian, right, another polio victim, fights back tears as Dr. Donald Proctor gives the injection. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Christian, 1901 East Sixth. (Staff photos)

Italy Needs Second Ballot For President

Red-backed Candidate Leads But Is Short Of Two-Thirds Vote

ROME (AP)—A Communist-backed candidate took the biggest share of votes in the opening ballot of a parliamentary election today to choose a new Italian President. But he fell far short of the necessary two-thirds majority.

A second ballot was scheduled this afternoon.

With the center parties splitting their votes, Ferruccio Parri, the nominee of the Reds and their left-wing Socialist allies, got 308 votes. He needed 362 for election.

Second in the running was Cesare Merzagora, the candidate of Premier Mario Scelba's Christian Democrat party. He got 228 votes. Luigi Einaudi, 81-year-old incumbent President, was third with 120. Einaudi had refused to say whether he would accept the job if elected.

Parri, 65, served briefly as Premier in 1945. A non-Communist World War II partisan leader, he has not been active politically lately and is generally considered a nonpolitical figure.

A two-thirds majority of all 843 electors—300 deputies, 243 senators and 10 delegates from the semi-autonomous regions of Sicily, Sardinia, Italian Tyrol and the Val d'Aosta—is required on any of the first three ballots. This would be 562 votes.

After that, a president can be chosen by an absolute majority of 422 votes.

Governor Picks Dr. James Amos For Salk Work

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Gov. Phil M. Donnelly chose Dr. James R. Amos today to work with a national advisory committee on distributing the limited supplies of Salk anti-polio vaccine in Missouri.

Dr. James is director of the State Division of Health. He was designated as the official Missouri contact for an advisory committee set up by President Eisenhower to work out a state by state distribution formula.

The governor acted at the request of Oveta Culp Hobby, secretary of health, education and welfare.

Meanwhile, the State Health Division issued a statement reassuring Missourians that none of the vaccine being administered in this state came from the California firm whose supplies of the drug have been withdrawn.

The division pointed out that some Missouri vaccine was given seven days ago "and no adverse effects have been reported." Any decisions to delay the shots temporarily will be left to local doctors carrying out the programs in their areas.

Salk vaccine clinics scheduled in Jefferson City for today were postponed temporarily last night as a precautionary move.

Trucks Haul 85 Loads Of Trash Wednesday

On Wednesday 85 truck loads of trash were collected by the city with 75 loads going to the disposal plant and ten to the incinerator. This brings the total for the week to 162 truck loads.

'Operation Ouch' Goes Well--

Pettis County Youngsters Get Innoculation At Horace Mann with Many Groups Aiding

The parade of children started Thursday morning for Operation Ouch at Horace Mann School. They were first and second graders from Sedalia and throughout Pettis County who had signed up for the polio inoculations.

The Salk vaccine was given free to those whose parents had signed the permission slips passed out earlier.

The Horace Mann students came through first, starting at 9 a. m., followed by Broadway pupils, Hughesville, Whittier, Smithton, Houstonia, the first group from Washington, LaMonte, High Point, Striped College, Georgetown and District R-12.

Jefferson pupils came through at 11 a. m., followed by Bunker Hill, St. John's, Prairie Grove, South Side, Walnut, Anderson and Liberty, Sunny Side, Quisenberry, Camp Branch and Bothwell, Mark Twain, Sacred Heart, St. Patrick's, Longwood, Cartwright, Hubbard, Bryson, Maple Grove, McVey, Mosby and Tanglenook. The last of the vaccinations began at 1:30 p. m.

The children for the most part accepted the injections with little protest. Some even asked, "Is it over?" A few put up resistance and some felt the urge to shed a few tears.

Any further inoculations will be at the parents' expense. The booster shots are important and will be needed later.

The injections were handled quickly and efficiently at Horace Mann with Doctors Stauffacher, Pete Siegel and Hopkins working during the morning.

Credit for the success of the local polio immunization program goes to the many area citizens who contributed their time and money.

Ross Ewing, C of C Host Visitors--

House Committee Members Visit Fairgrounds Wednesday

Members of the Appropriation Committee of the Missouri House of Representatives visited the Missouri State Fair grounds Wednesday evening and were guests at dinner at the Old Missouri Homestead following their tour.

The Sedalia Chamber of Commerce with Ross Ewing, secretary-manager of the Missouri State Fair were host to the visitors at the dinner.

The group arrived at the fair ground about 6 p. m. toured the grounds inspecting the buildings and grounds and looked over the site for the proposed $100,000 sheep barn which is expected to be built and ready for the 1955 Fair in August.

Also visited was the Women's Building which the plans are to remodel for a Youth Activities Building; the area where the race horse barns are located and where a new barn is expected to be built to replace that destroyed in the tornado two years ago.

Coming to Sedalia in a caravan of automobiles the group was escorted by Lt. H. D. Brigham of the Missouri State Highway Patrol. They were accompanied by Mr. Ewing who motored to Jefferson City in the afternoon, L. C. Carpenter, commissioner of agriculture, under whose jurisdiction the Missouri State Fair comes in the Department of Agriculture, and other members of the Agriculture Department.

Rep. Milt Overstreet of Pettis County, also a member of the committee, was with the group and assisted the hosts in entertaining the visitors and explaining the necessity of funds for the building program at the fair.

Mr. Carpenter acted as toastmaster at the dinner and introduced all of the legislators and guests. Mayor Bagby was introduced and gave a few remarks. Jack Faber, executive manager of the Chamber of Commerce, gave a short talk of welcome in behalf of Kenneth U. Love, president, who is out of the city.

Secretary Ewing spoke on the fair and impressed on the Legislators the importance of their attendance at the fair "to see it in operation, and not as it is today with empty buildings and no fair activity."

Rep. Overstreet in his remarks told of "Legislators Day" at the fair and urged all to come back to Sedalia for that day if not every day to the Missouri State Fair. "It is your fair, as well as ours, and I would like for you to impress on the other members of the House and Senate to be sure they are here on Legislators Day this year. We all would appreciate it more if we could see it while the fair is in operation."

W. C. Askew, chairman of the C. of C. State Fair Committee, spoke briefly and invited the visitors back. "I would like to see it continue on the road it has started in recent years to become a more of an educational institution. Miss (Please turn to page 4, Column 1)

Mrs. Mabel Chambers Assumes Clerk Duty For Milton Overstreet

Mrs. Mabel Chambers, wife of George F. Chambers, Route 4, will enter upon the duties of clerk for Representative Milton Overstreet on Tuesday. Mrs. Chambers is replacing William Marlin who resigned as clerk for Mr. Overstreet to accept a position with the Missouri State Fair.

Garden Clubs To Plant Areas Around Sedalia

Friday is Plant-Up Day in Sedalia and Garden Club members have secured permission to plant flowers at the division point of North Highway 65 and Osage. This will make a beauty spot coming into the city.

Also, they have permission to plant the circle at the Municipal Airport.

This would be a good time to look for places to brighten around the home with flowers and shrubs, according to the Garden Club. Putting out those perennial plants that come up every year and bloom, planting those rosebushes or flowering shrubs, and those everblooming climbing roses that are a mass of bloom in the spring and keep blooming until frost.

A little plot of ground given to youngsters along with flower seed can encourage a love for beauty, an interest in flowers, the tiny first leaves coming up, then the buds, then the blossoms, that miracle of God and the little seed.

Red Chinese Want Separate Talks With US

TOKYO (AP)—Peiping radio tonight quoted Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai as saying "in the present situation in the Taiwan (Formosa) area there does exist the crisis of a new international war."

"However, whether the present situation will lead to a world war depends upon the United States, because there is no war at present between China and the United States."

In a dispatch from Djakarta, Indonesia, the broadcast said Chou told Sam Jaffe, correspondent of the Nation, a liberal New York magazine, that he would negotiate with the United States to relax tension in the Formosa area but not with Nationalist China.

The broadcast said the interview took place Sunday. Chou told Jaffe "the liberation of Taiwan is China's internal affair. The Chinese people have the right to make the demand and to put it into effect." Tension in the area, he insisted, had been caused by "United States intervention."

"This is an international question. In order to relax tension in the Taiwan area China proposes that China and the United States sit down and enter into negotiations in order to seek a solution to this question."

The broadcast said Jaffe asked: "Would the People's Republic of China be willing to sit down with the United States government as well as the Nationalists to discuss the Taiwan question?"

Broom, Bulb Sale Is Off To Good Start

Team Began Canvass Of Residential Area To Aid Charities

The Sedalia Lions Club annual Broom and Light Bulb sale has started with reported good results for the first night of residential canvass. The project is to raise funds for the organization work for the blind, crippled children, other children and charity activities.

Teams of Lions working in various sections of the city are endeavoring to complete a canvass of the residential areas tonight. The Lions with their brooms and sacks of light bulbs are calling at the individual homes, selling and delivering and taking orders for later deliveries. The early report on the first canvass made Wednesday night was that the teams had accounted for approximately $800 to $1,000.

Goal for this annual sale this year is for at least $8,000.

Starting Friday, the large trailer of the Schien Truck Lines, loaned to the Lions, will be located at Third and Ohio in front of the J. C. Penny Store. Sales will start at 7 a. m. and continue through the day up to 9 p. m. The same hours will be had on Saturday.

All brooms, rubber mats, ironing board pads, covers and dust mops have been manufactured by blind persons of Missouri through the efforts of the Business Opportunities for the Blind, known as BOMB. Lions Clubs throughout the entire country have been sponsoring such sales, the brooms the past six or seven years and the past year the light bulb project.

The slogan for the light bulb sales "Let YOUR Light So Shine—HELP Some Crippled Child," is being carried through the nation.

A. B. Warren, general chairman for the sale, who is also a member of the board of directors of BOMB from District 26-C of Lions International, is hopeful the goal will be reached. Warren announced that any home which might have been missed by the canvassing Lions can obtain brooms or bulbs by telephoning him at 475, between 7 a. m. and 10 p. m. Friday and Saturday. Orders will be delivered.

Friday Pickup Day For Southeast Area

Friday will be pickup day for trash by the city trucks in the area from Broadway to Ohio—south and east to the City Limits.

Violence Engulfs Viet Nam

Premier Vows Fight To End With Sect After Palace Attack Starts Civil Strife

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—Flames burned a square mile of Saigon tonight and hundreds were killed or wounded in bloody fighting for control of South Viet Nam's government.

The American-supported Premier Ngo Dinh Diem declared war to the finish against the rebel Binh Xuyen Society after a triple attack on Diem's palace, army and police headquarters.

Three battalions of Nationalist infantrymen and parachute troops, using machineguns and supported by tanks, pressed the attack on the society of former river pirates' 5,000-man private army.

At nightfall, with Saigon under a pall of smoke, the Premier appealed over the government radio for calm. He said the government troops had the situation in hand.

He accused Binh Xuyen Gen. Le Van Vien of touching off a civil war and disobeying an order from Chief of State Bao Dai to refrain from violence.

After six hours of fighting the army said it had disengaged the Binh Xuyen from both Nationalist army headquarters and the headquarters of the National Sure, or security police, where there had been some hand to hand fighting.

Massed Nationalist forces were pressing the Binh Xuyen back toward the bridge which leads to their territory in Cho Lon, about seven miles from the French residential business area.

Binh Xuyen, a society of former river pirates which controls Saigon's gambling and vice spots, started the battle at 1:10 p. m. with two mortar bombardments of the Nationalist Premier's palace.

Diem met the challenge promptly by declaring all-out war on the Binh Xuyen. He had held off direct military intervention because of French fears such action would touch off civil war.

Casualties were estimated in first reports at 120 dead and 300 wounded. Hospitals were filled with the dead and dying.

Punching swiftly and hard, Diem's troops knocked over four principal garrisons and posts held in Saigon and Cholon, the Chinese sector of the capital several miles from the French section. The total population of the city, swollen by an influx of refugees from the North, is about two million.

Jelke Sentenced After 2nd Trial; Less Than First

NEW YORK (AP)—Mickey Jelke today was given a prison sentence of two to three years on his conviction in the cafe society vice case.

The sentence was imposed on the young heir to an oleomargarine fortune after a 13-minute plea by defense attorneys for leniency.

Jelke, who was tried twice, was convicted of inducing Pat Ward to live a life of prostitution and of attempting to induce Marguerite Cordova to do the same.

His first conviction was thrown out because the trial judge excluded during presentation of prosecution testimony.

The sentence given in the second trial was less than that imposed after the first—three to six years. He could have received a maximum term of 40 years. Jelke is 25 years old.

First Round Approval Of Pari-Mutuel Betting

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Missouri Senate gave first round approval today to a bill to legalize pari-mutuel betting on horse racing.

The vote putting the bill into position for passage was 13-12. If it passes the Senate—when it would need 18 votes—the measure still would have to get through the House and be approved by the voters before becoming law.

Mrs. C. Kast Presents Plan Of Home Demonstration Week

Mrs. Charles Kast, president of the Flat Creek Extension Club, presented the National Home Demonstration Week plan at the April meeting of the Pettis County Home Economics Extension Club Council Monday at the First Methodist Church. This observance is the first week of May. The 1935 theme is "You Never Outgrow Your Need for Milk." The window display in Sedalia will be arranged by the Ringing Neighbors Homemakers.

Mrs. W. J. Holtzen, council president, presided with Mrs. Paul Stephens, secretary. Presidents and reporters were representatives from the county units. Hostesses for the day were: Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. O. R. Demand, Mrs. Albert Tucker and Mrs. J. T. Campbell.

They were interested in the color slides of Campbell-Harrison House of Columbia which Miss Opal O'Brian, Pettis county agent, used in her talk. Some of the home economics students attending Missouri University live at this house which is operated on a cooperative basis. The choice of these students is made on scholastic ability and need for financial assistance.

Jim Perry, county assistant agent, and the agent in training, Estill Hudson, used colored slides in presenting results of better farming practices in the county. As improved farming procedures result in higher income more conveniences are made available for better living for the entire family.

tested and 20 more were in process of being tested.

Mrs. F. I. Lawrence told the group the advantages of a home nursing course which is sponsored by the Red Cross.

Mrs. Delores White, society editor of the Sedalia Democrat-Capital, gave a summary of what makes a news story. Her display sheet of different reports of club activities was used to explain points of good reporting. She suggested more detail in reporting, use of names, and interesting part of meeting as an opening paragraph.

The council reporter read a portion of a letter to Miss O'Brian from Mrs. Lester Housman of Rogersville, acknowledging her appreciation of number of subscriptions of "Country Woman" and "National Notes" from the extension clubs of Pettis County.

Mrs. Housman, the former Mildred Walker, has a unique interest in Pettis County for she is a descendant of Gen. David Thompson, a pioneer resident from Kentucky who came to this country in 1833. His daughter married George R. Smith, the founder of Sedalia.

Most of us know this old home as the residence of Lee May, north of Georgetown.

Mrs. D. I. Sevier, president of the Thursday Club led the group in a clever action game before adjournment at the close of the afternoon session.

There are 25,000 U.S. communities that depend entirely on highways for transportation.

Striped College Club Reports Making Over 300 Cancer Dressings

Mrs. A. A. Lichte, 1010 Murray, entertained the Striped College Homemakers Club at an all day meeting April 15. Mrs. Glenn Cox and Mrs. G. W. Dabner were assisting hostesses.

Following the covered dish luncheon Mrs. S. G. Monsees presided over the meeting. Roll was answered by "One Improved Food Habit" by 19 members and three guests.

Mrs. Cox reported that 317 cancer dressings has been completed. It was voted to give $5 to the cancer drive. Mrs. John Lineville read the monthly news letter. Mrs. Parke Green gave the devotional.

Mrs. Monsees reported on the meeting she had attended on "Frozen Foods", she displayed and explained the different types of food containers to use in storing frozen food. She also demonstrated how to prepare and pack some of the fruits and vegetables.

Highway Dept. To Oil Surface Roads In Area

In December of 1954 the State Highway Department announced that the surface of the following routes would be oiled during the 1955 construction season.

Several routes in Pettis County including Route 130 from the end of the present blacktop to Route 127; Route 135 from Route 50 to the Cooper County line, and Route M from Route D to Houstonia.

Intensive maintenance work has been carried out on these roads during the past four months, and with favorable weather conditions the actual oiling will be started at any time within the next four weeks.

The oil will be placed in these applications with a time lapse of six weeks or more between the first and last applications. It is planned to keep these roads open to traffic by oiling on one side of the road at a time and allowing the oil to dry as much as possible before oiling the other side. This method will require long stretches of one-way traffic and considerable inconvenience to drivers. "Fresh Oil" signs will be placed at the limits of the work in order that drivers may be forewarned.

During oiling operations these roads should be avoided, when possible.

The body will remain at the Ferguson Funeral Home until after services when burial will be in Crown Hill Annex.

Lightning Bolt Hits Farmer While Plowing But No Bad Effects

Clarence Mueller, Ionia, apparently has suffered no ill effects after being struck down by a bolt of lightning during a storm Saturday afternoon.

Mueller had been plowing with a tractor and had sat down for a moment when the lightning struck. It temporarily paralyzed his muscles and he said he felt numb all over. But he didn't lose consciousness.

After regaining his coordination, Mueller walked to the house where he rested for a while before resuming his work.

Frisky Pup Causes Long Chain of Damage

DALLAS, Tex. (U—) Barbara Ann Grady, 17, didn't want her frisky pup on the seat of her automobile, she told police.

She was trying to put the dog onto the car's floor when the vehicle:

Jumped the curb.
Knocked down a no-parking sign.
Cracked a utility pole and damaged a 13,000-volt transformer.

Knocked out several teeth for Miss Grady and fractured her shoulder.

And plunged a large area of suburban Oak Cliff into darkness for 40 minutes.

Reports of Violations Of School Stop Signs By Passing Motorists

Stop signs at the various schools over Sedalia and the School Bus Patrols at the schools are being ignored by many motorists in Sedalia, and many from out of town, according to reports being made to the local police.

Reports have been given to the police that some cars slow down but others refuse to stop. The boys on duty have been taking down the license numbers and are reporting them to their principals, who in turn are turning them over to the police department.

The most ignored signs are at the Broadway School on Broadway. Chief of Police Edgar Neighbors has a list of some 50 automobiles and their license numbers which are now being checked.

If these violations persist, the offenders will be arrested and prosecuted in police court.

Tentative Agreement By Drivers, Builders

ST. LOUIS (U—) A tentative agreement on a new contract has been reached between about 200 AFL truck drivers and St. Louis motor builders.

Richard Higginbotham, president of the builders, and Rudy Palada, secretary-treasurer of the Teamsters Union Local 682, made the joint announcement yesterday.

FAST WORK—It took city employees less than one hour to collect this truck load of rubbish in one ten block sweep through the west side of Sedalia in the early morning "pickups" Wednesday morning. Pictured here are Melvin Deheimer, George Meyers and Raymond Lewis, all city employees. Only one quarter of the city remains uncleaned by the street and alley department project to clean up rubbish as a part of the Clean-Up, Paint-up and Fix-up campaign. (Staff photo)

Clean-Up Week Project...

Health Director Gives City Sanitary Recommendations

Thursday is designated as Health Day for Clean-Up Week and Dr. T. J. Hopkins, chairman of the health committee under the civic activities division of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Del Hecker is director, makes the following recommendations for a healthy city:

"Clean-Up Week is now well under way with the majority of Sedalia's citizens engaged in a campaign to rid their homes and yards of the winter's accumulation of debris. This campaign is bringing us neater lawns, brighter homes, cleaner streets and in general a more beautiful town in which to live."

"It is also bringing us something else of even more value — a healthier city. The importance of cleanliness in preventing the spread of disease has been emphasized since the days of the Mosaic Law and is well known to everyone, but it deserves mention at this time to help spur each of us to do a better clean up job."

"The spread of disease, or the development of an epidemic, is contingent upon four factors: the reservoir, the parasite or germ, the immunity of the populace and the transmission. The practice of preventive medicine is essentially aimed at increasing the immunity of the populace when possible and decreasing the prevalence of the other three factors."

"By decreasing the dirt from the streets, by cleaning up collections of weeds, leaves and garbage, by eliminating areas where water tends to collect and stagnate, by keeping vacant lots free of weeds, by practicing principles of sanitation with respect to the outdoor toilets that exist in Sedalia, by observing ordinary decency in avoiding littering Sedalia's streets with refuse and by just being good housekeepers we can decrease the reservoirs of some types of disease and prevent the breeding of insects which spread disease. It is a commendable thing, and is the responsibility of each individual. If undertaken wholeheartedly it will pay dividends in terms of decreased illness."

"Finally, it is necessary to point out that despite the development of the Salk vaccine for polio, its menace will still be present this summer. Many adults will not be able to get the vaccine for some months; those children who do get the vaccine will have to build an immunity in response to the vaccine and this is a slow process. "It will take time for the body to build up a maximum resistance to polio, and it is likely that the greatest benefit from the vaccine will not be felt until next summer — an added reason for practicing preventive medicine, for doing a good cleanup job this week and following it up through the summer."

Dr. Robinson, working with Vice-President Jack Delph, had just called on a home and obtained an order. He was hurrying back to the truck to get his order when he stumbled over the meter box in the dark and fell.

He was able to hobble to the waiting truck, where he sat down. Other members delivered his order and then took him to his home.

X-ray pictures were taken, revealing a broken tip of one bone in the ankle. He was treated by Dr. A. L. Lowe and is now confined to his home for several days.

Dr. Robinson's team was just winding up its night of work when the accident occurred.

He was able to hobble to the waiting truck, where he sat down. Other members delivered his order and then took him to his home.

X-ray pictures were taken, revealing a broken tip of one bone in the ankle. He was treated by Dr. A. L. Lowe and is now confined to his home for several days.

Dr. Robinson's team was just winding up its night of work when the accident occurred.

They Take Over Several Motels—

Sedalia Square Dancers Attend Hoedown At National Convention In Oklahoma City

A group of Sedalia square dancers who attended the national Square Dance Convention held last week in Oklahoma City are home again with happy memories of about four days of whirling and stepping.

The Skylite Motel was just about turned over to Sedalians and a group of their friends from Slater. In that motel were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cain, Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Priddy, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, all of Sedalia, and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Strohl and Mr. and Mrs. Jean Booth of Slater. At another motel were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Donath and Damon Hieronymus and at the Clock Inn Motel were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Loague and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Berry. The rest of the Sedalians, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ulmer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanning, Mr. and Mrs. Klaud Kinne, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wolf, stayed at the Huck-ins Hotel.

The first Sedalians to arrive at the convention were the Wilburs and the Andersons on Wednesday and they were joined by the Cains for the dance that night. There were between 50 and 60 sets, in the end of the Frail Dance given by the T 'N T Club. Across town was another dance with about the same number of couples.

Thursday morning was registration time and at noon Thursday the big event really started. The dancing began at 1 p.m. and lasted until 11:30 p.m. and then they went on to motels and hotels—to go to bed? Oh, no, not square dancers. They have after parties and this after party lasted until about 2:30 a.m. Square dancing isn't a spectator sport, you learn from enthusiasts. A Texas woman puts it, "When you hear the calls, you have to dance. We have to get away from the auditorium when we want a rest." The Sedalia square dancers agree, but do they ever get away from the auditorium? That is what people who don't square dance sometimes wonder.

The square dancing began again at 9:30 Thursday morning and there was exhibition dances and the square dance clinic. There was a round dance clinic, too, a contra clinic and an international folk dance clinic but it seems that square dancers need no other kind of clinics—they would have to be healthy to stand the pace they go, or maybe they are healthy because they just keep square dancing.

Friday there were several square dance forums for promotion of square dancing. There was a panel with Bob Osgood, Los Angeles, who has called in Se-dalians, as moderator. There were good ideas for promotions which the Sedalia group plan to try out. They had a thrill, too, when they watched the colored telecast over station WKY. The morning square dance clinic was of main interest because it featured new square dances.

An exhibition dance was given by eight youngsters dancing on skates and an unusual exhibition is that of the crippled people who square dance in their wheelchairs. They had never even seen a square dance several years ago when this idea was first introduced to them

Doctor Blames Drouth on AF Tornado Tests

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—The man who fathered the science of making rain said today he believes armed forces experiments may have caused the disastrous Missouri Valley floods of June 1952.

Dr. Irving Langmuir, a Nobel Prize winner and consultant for General Electric Co. experiments with rainmaking, also declared:

1. An Air Force test on a tornado off the eastern coast Oct. 17, 1947, may have turned the twister off its course and pushed it into Savannah, Ga., with damage of five million dollars.

2. There is evidence that rainmaking in some areas may create drought in others.

Langmuir was interviewed while attending the International Arid Lands Symposium, where scientists from 18 nations are seeking answers to the rapidly growing arid regions which already cover a third of the earth's land surface.

He declared that he thinks now—and insisted at the time—that a single silver iodide generator operating at Alamogordo, N. M., under Project Cirrus caused the steady downpours which drowned the Missouri Valley three years ago.

"We had been seeding for some time, and the storms kept getting bigger and better. I told them (the armed forces heads administering the project) that I felt we ought to stop seeding as the rains in the Missouri Valley kept falling."

"But the administrator of the project was on vacation at the time. No one would take responsibility for ordering the seeding stopped."

"Finally, I told them we must stop, things were getting serious."

"We stopped on July 2. On July 7 the flood just about devastated Omaha."

Langmuir explained how a lone cloud generator in New Mexico could affect the weather so far away: The silver iodide particles are sent into the air, say, in New Mexico. Winds from the west blow them across the Mississippi, where they come in contact with moist air masses coming in from the Gulf of Mexico.

A particle of silver iodide about the size of a pencil dot is enough to affect a cubic mile of air weighing 100 million tons, Langmuir said. Once a storm has been started, it triggers other storms. And if the cloud seeder is restarted at intervals, you get rain at about the same intervals.

"If we had stopped our generator two weeks earlier," Langmuir said, "the Missouri Valley floods would not have happened."

Langmuir said that on Oct. 17, 1947, an Air Force plane seeded a tornado heading north off the East Coast. The twister turned 120 degrees, "which the Weather Bureau said was impossible," and smashed on to Savannah.

"There was not one chance in 7,000 that the tornado would have turned if it had not been seeded," Langmuir said. "I had suggested that we wait until the storm was further north and out to sea to experiment."

Need More Patrolmen

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Lewd, lascivious and obscene literature has been banned in Texas by a bill signed by Gov. Allan Shivers. A companion measure to ban lewd and depraved comic book sales awaits the governor's signature.

Belligerent Rats
CAMPBELL, Ohio (AP)—Councilman Frank Reichard, after hearing complaints about rats at the city dump, went down to the dump himself. He reported to his fellow councilmen that a big rat attacked him, forcing him to flee for some distance before he finally was able to kill it with a stone. After Reichard's experience, the city started scattering rat poison on the dump.

6 THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT—Sedalia, Mo., Thurs., April 28, 1955 Weekly Insect Report— Cutworms Are Still Uncovered And Offer Threat to Crops

By STIRLING KYD
Extension Entomologist
and GEORGE W. THOMAS
Survey Entomologist

CUTWORMS—We are still finding cutworms scattered over the entire state. So far little spraying has been done, but we still believe these worms offer a serious threat to several crops.

Be careful about spraying legumes that will be cut for hay. It looks to us as though some of this alfalfa may be within three weeks or so of cutting and if it is, you should not take a chance with residues by using dieldrin or oxaphene. If heavy damage begins to show up, it would be a better bet to cut early and then spray, rather than take a chance in getting caught with a contaminated crop.

We have had several questions about plowing under green manure crops that are infested with cutworms. If this land is to be planted back in corn, don't take a chance with the cutworms—they could live through until the corn comes up. A lot of the cutworm damage to corn last year was caused by this same species of cutworms. If the cover crop was infested, use a soil insecticide on the corn land. Use either aldrin or heptachlor at 1½ pounds to the acre, and preferably apply it broadcast as soon as the ground is plowed. This can be either a broadcast spray, or a broadcast application mixed with fertilizer. As soon as the insecticide is applied, disk it in.

The advantage of the broadcast application will be that it can be put on several weeks ahead of corn planting, and thus knock down the worm population before the corn sprouts.

GRASSHOPPERS—A few scattered red-legged and Mexican hoppers have hatched, but the big hatch has not yet started. It is not yet time to spray, but it is time to suggest that farmers start figuring out their pasture rotation so that they can spray out infested pastures when the time comes—which will probably be within another two or three weeks.

These early-hatching species will be found primarily in pastures and waste lands. Their eggs are not grouped in small areas as much as are the larger hoppers which will hatch a few weeks later. This means that a lot of pastures will need to be sprayed out completely if small hoppers are pretty well scattered over the entire acreage. To play it safe, livestock should not be grazed on pastures sprayed with heptachlor or aldrin for 10 to 14 days, or on pastures sprayed with dieldrin, chlordane, or toxaphene for 21 to 30 days. This means that some planning on rotation of pastures will be necessary on many farms.

ARMYWORMS—Heavy moth flights have continued during the week. The first small worms were picked up in the foothill area, but it's still too early to know how heavy the infestation may be.

With an insect such as armyworms—particularly when we are able to catch the first hatch—there is ample time to check the infestation before spraying is needed. So, don't get in too much of a hurry to spray for these insects. Also start checking small grains for worms.

CLOVER LEAF WEEVILS—In those areas of the state that have been getting plenty of moisture, fungus disease is hitting clover leaf weevils and reducing their potential. Legumes are growing very rapidly, and it now looks as though most old established stands will be able to get by without spraying. Some new seedings, or some drouth hit stands may still need protection.

Continue to check for healthy weevil grubs (the diseased ones will be discoloring), and if six or more healthy ones are found per crown, watch the crop carefully. If damage—scalloping of leaves—is heavy, don't wait any longer. As late as it is, however, better use the DDT instead of toxaphene because of residues. If alfalfa is within four weeks of cutting you don't want to use toxaphene.

CUTWORMS IN THE GARDEN—We are having complaints about cutworms cutting off newly-set garden plants. In fact, the complaints are considerably more numerous this year than usual.

Use collars around the plants—paper cups or ice cream cartons with the bottom pushed out, or tin cans with both top and bottom removed—or use an insecticide in the transplanting water. Use one teaspoon of 25 per cent lindane wettable powder or two table-spoons of 65 per cent toxaphene emulsifiable concentrate per gallon of water.

Either method will get the job done.

PEA APHIDS—During the week there has been some increase in pea aphids—particularly in the southern part of the state. As fast as alfalfa is growing, however, it is very doubtful that they can build up fast enough to hurt too much.

Arrested After Spree Shooting Up the Town Man Attempts Suicide

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Charles Klevis, 28, captured by police after a shooting spree yesterday in which he held his own mother hostage, tried to kill himself in a prison hospital.

When left unattended for a moment late yesterday Klevis, an unemployed coal miner, broke a window, then used a jagged piece of glass to slash his wrists and throat.

Klevis was expected to live. Klevis was captured in nearby Frackville, as he tried to escape as police surrounded his mother's home. He had shot and wounded a sister-in-law, Mrs. Cecilia Klebash, 41, and her daughter, Charlotte, 15.

The fracas started over divorce plans of Klevis' wife, Betty, who was staying with Mrs. Klebash. Police bullets wounded Klevis, but not seriously. He was charged with assault with intent to kill.

Civil War Widow Dies
MYSTIC, Conn. (AP)—When Mrs. Carrie Holt, 91, died, she was listed as the last widow of a Civil War veteran in Connecticut. She cast her first vote in 1952, at the age of 89.

Yoshida Aims To Split Red Chinese, USSR

TOKYO (AP)—Former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida today recommended that the non-Communist world use 10 million Chinese outside Red China as a fifth column to detach Red China from Soviet Russia.

He called splitting the Communist bloc the best way to overcome the Communist threat in the Far East. It appears strong, he said, because of the long common frontier China and Russia share.

He said the overseas Chinese in Southeast Asia could be shown through freedom and world trade that communism does not pay and then they would become "an effective fifth column for the freedom and welfare of mankind by calling out to their compatriots at home."

"It would have great impact on the (mainland) Chinese people and contribute much toward detaching Communist China from the Soviet Union."

Yoshida's advice was in a text prepared for a speech to the Tokyo Foreign Correspondents Club.

He left that portion out of his talk, but told The Associated Press that was inadvertant and he stood by the text.

In the packed club dining room, he said communism threatens all Asia and criticized as extremely dangerous the present Japanese government's policy of trying to deal with the Reds.

At the same time he said he did not believe the Soviet Russia-Red China bloc was as strong as "some fearful-minded persons in the free world believe."

"If Soviet Russia and Communist China were truly that strong," he said, "they would attack the United States, which is the mainstay of the free world."

Sheep Faster Work

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP)—Shearing a sheep takes less time than shearing a man. Carl Charlesworth, a barber who clips sheep in his off hours, says it takes four minutes per sheep while a haircut takes 20.

Bonus of Good Luck

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—If four-leaf clovers bring good luck, then 16-year-old Audrey Gerkin should receive a triple dose of good fortune. She found a six-leaf clover in her back yard.

Bevan Greeted Back Into Fold By Labor Party

LONDON (AP)—Left-winger Aneurin Bevan, whose feud with Clement Attlee cost him his Laborite label in Parliament is being welcomed back—just a month before the general election.

The party leadership, headed by Attlee, voted last night to recommend that Bevan be restored to full membership in the parliamentary Labor party, made up of Socialist members of the House of Commons. Such recommendations are accepted automatically.

Bevan was expelled from the Labor ranks in Parliament March 16 after he and former Prime Minister Attlee, leader of the party, had clashed repeatedly on Attlee's moderate policies. He was not voted out of the party itself, although he never recanted his criticism of its leadership.

Last night's decision means that Bevan will have a full voice in plotting Labor strategy for the May 26 election. The reinstatement is a patent move to repair the party split before the voting.

On the Conservative side of the fence, meanwhile, reliable informants said Prime Minister Eden is hoping his government and its allies can pull off a diplomatic triple play before election—Formosa peace talks, Austrian independence and an approach to a Big Four conference on other world problems.

Modern Dog Catchers

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—To catch stray dogs more quickly, the Genesee County dog catcher is going to be radio dispatched. Dog Warden Max Cole said four of his trucks will be equipped with two-way radios connected with the sheriff's office.

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away . . .

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Boys Cause Big Scare By Entering Tunnel Minutes Before Train

EVERETT, Wash. (AP)—Five boys, aged 14 and 15, dawdling along on their way home from school were seen entering a railroad tunnel here yesterday.

A horrified witness called police, shouting a warning that a fast-moving streamliner train was due in a few minutes.

Police and firemen from all over town started moving toward the entrance to the 2,440-foot tunnel. Railroad officials waited helplessly—the streamliner had left the yards and couldn't be stopped.

Police reached the tunnel just as the train roared into it, and too late to stop it.

As soon as the train was through, they entered from both ends. Inside were five scared and grimey boys. They had thrown themselves into a muddy ditch just in the nick of time.

After a stern lecture, the youngsters were turned over to their parents for "further action."

Saving Those Fabric Tags Can Be Homemaking Aids

Tags tell the tale of washing care your garments should receive to insure long life and wearability. Keep them, together with appliance instruction booklets and water temperature thermometer, on peg board located near your work area.

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Tagging the textiles that enter our homes is about the only way manufacturers can keep us up to the fibers in the fabrics and tell us how to take care of them.

But what do you do with the tags when you take them off the fabric? If you drop them in the wastebasket, how are you going to remember whether that little wool skirt is really part orlon? Or do you wash it by machine or hand? Does it drip dry or can it be wrung? With the washable tags of summer dropping into the hamper, it's time to stop and regroup our tag collections.

I asked Mrs. Jessie Cartwright, director of the Norge Home Institute, just how important she thinks it is for homemakers to save all the data thrust upon them.

If there's a laundry instruction tag on the garment, by all means keep it handy, says Mrs. C. There are so many blends of natural and synthetic fibers — dacron with cotton, orlon with silk, dacron with nylon and so on — that unless you have a guide you just can't remember what to do with each. Nor can you tell by touch which fabric is which.

Add to the list the special finishes used on cottons, wool flannels that are washable, plus the special instructions accompanying curtains and blankets, and you can see why you can't trust to memory.

Mrs. Cartwright also reminded me that the instruction booklet that comes with the washer should be kept for handy reference. Furthermore, she said, the water temperature should be right for the laundry job to be done. Pay attention to the manufacturer's tips. Some dyes used on synthetics, for instance, will not stand high water temperature.

To keep tabs on the tags, I fixed up a peg board which I've stuck on the wall near sink and machine. When I acquire a new garment for myself or the family, I jot down on the tag whose it is and hang it up. Golf tees are adequate temporary hooks. When your collection builds up to impressive size, stick a regular small hook into the board.

This worked out so easily, I punched a hole in the washer instruction book and hung that up, too. I also hung up the thermometer that I find I use more at the machine and sink than I do in cooking. I usually have to shorten the thread on the tags and, in the case of wrapper labels such as are used on curtains, I punch a hole, bind it and knot a string through it.

Old Enough for Guns
WALLINGFORD, Conn. (AP) — "You don't look 21," Edwin E. Cowen told two youths who ordered a quart of beer at his liquor store. When Cowen asked them for proof of age, one of the youths reached into his pocket for a revolver. The pair fled with $250 in cash from Cowen's wallet and cash register.

Youth Admits Setting Bomb In Judge's Yard

DETROIT (AP)—The mystery of the homemade bomb set off near the home of Recorder's Judge W. McKay Skillman Tuesday night has been solved, police said today.

Detectives quoted a 15-year-old boy who lives in the judge's neighborhood as saying he did it "just for the fun of it."

The boy told police he made the bomb from a six-inch lead pipe stuffed with chemicals taken from a high school laboratory. It did

Recover Church Bell Bomb In Judge's Yard

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit police had a 500-pound cast iron church bell in their lost and found department today. The bell, 3½ feet by 4 feet, was found in an alley. None has been reported missing.

Cut that leftover frankfurter in thin rounds and add to almost any kind of soup—split pea, black bean, cream of celery.

No serious damage. He was ordered to report with his parents to the youth bureau.

Japanese Police Seize Reds In Underground

FUKUOKA, Japan (AP)—Police yesterday seized another of nine Japanese Communist leaders who went underground in 1950.

Hiroshi Hasegawa, once on the party's central committee, was found at work in the Communists' West Japan bureau. He was charged with refusing to answer a subpoena.

Two others of the nine have been captured. A fourth, Yoshio Shiga, came out of hiding last

Poor Eyesight Loses Chance For License

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Otto Wolfersberger, 71, drove to the St. Clair County courthouse to take a driver's license test.

He didn't pass: "Poor eyesight."

When Wolfersberger got outside yesterday he found a ticket on his car—which he'd parked on the sidewalk. He told police he noticed signs on the sidewalk next to the curbing designating parking spots for license applicants and thought the sidewalk was the proper place to park. He was fined $1.

EASY REDUCING

Science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but now, right now, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...

counteracts hunger

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-calorie filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

We certify that ALL-IN-ONE CAPSULES are entirely safe for human consumption

Realism Versus Toy Pistols...

There is not much doubt that Sedalia's city ordinances need revision and city council has so decreed. But at least one of the so-called antiquated ordinances may have the dormant germ of good sense after all.

In pointing up the obsolescence of some of Sedalia's ordinances a recent news story noted: "Another example of city ordinances that are no longer recognized but remain active because no one bothered about repealing them, concerns toy pistols . . . sale of toy pistols by a retailer or possession is defined as a misdemeanor . . . upon conviction a guilty party may be fined $25 to $100."

What's so dangerous about a toy pistol — not the cap-firing ones, but the plastic article or even those made of chewing gum? Sounds silly to have an ordinance against this universal possession of Sedalia's juvenile cowboys.

Antiquated? Maybe. But lo and behold in New York City (1955) it is now against the law to possess a realistic toy pistol. The same law bars manufacture or selling these imitation guns. And this law is supported by a real reason: Last year the

New York police made 108 arrests for robberies in which "toys" were used and this does not account for the many other robberies in the metropolis in which the police were unable to find the holdup man.

It's a far cry from New York City, but from Memphis, Tenn., the Commercial-Appeal comments editorially: "There may be difficulties in the courts in determining where dangerous realism begins in the case of anything that looks or feels vaguely like a pistol barrel in the hands of a stranger on a lonely and dark street. But the law is necessary in the face of the obvious difficulties, and the regulation against toy pistols is one we expect to see adopted by other cities."

Likely the revival of interest in the ulterior purposes to which this innocent weapon can be put may cause the city council of our present era to give more than second thought to repealing our local law after the revision assignment has been completed by Attorney John McCloskey.

Sedalia's councilmanic ancestors may have been way ahead of the times when they passed an ordinance years ago against sale or possession of toy pistols.

Teenagers Might Help Solve Own Problems

COLUMBIA (Mo.) TRIBUNE — A Hickman High School student writes us that he had a date and there was no place to go but to a show . . . because Columbia doesn't offer anything else. His complaint is typical of that of the younger generation — and the older, as well. Columbia, or somebody or something else, doesn't offer something. Our teenage friend is a part of the community, just as are his fellow teenagers and his father and mother and their fellow citizens. So who isn't offering him anything? He and his fellow teenagers? So why don't they get busy? What does he want? He apparently doesn't want to go to a beer tavern, and that is good, because it would be against the law for him and his date to buy and drink beer there if he did. The "show" apparently is inadequate. There are plays, concerts, lectures, and all manner of cultural and amusement activities in Columbia, almost every night in the week. They are, perhaps, not ideal teenage fare, but the youngsters might now and then have a look at them. At home there is television and radio; there could be games and dancing. There could even be a little of the gentle art of conversation, which in some cases interests even teenagers.

Seriously what do the youngsters want, and what is there to prevent their getting it? Would they have all of us, teenagers or adults, wine and dine out each night, he ourselves off to the theater and then dance and drink in a night club until dawn?

As a sports columnist pointed out the other day, professional fighters are mature in their teens. So are hundreds of girls and boys on the stage, in baseball, on the farm, in the armed services and elsewhere. The boy who was elected president of the Future Farmers Association of Missouri last week, for instance, is building a home of his own up in Livingston County. Surely when youngsters have reached the age when they can fight professionally, dance on the Broadway stage, play major league baseball, serve around the world in the armed services and build homes of their own, they have reached a maturity that should permit them to get together and provide an evening's entertainment on their own.

The tenor of complaints about Columbia having nothing to offer isn't new. Teenagers and adults alike more and more are trying to rely on somebody else to bear our burdens — accept our responsibilities. Too many of us look on Uncle Sam as Uncle Sugar, and then follow the theory right down to school district level. Maybe the youngsters are just following in the ways of an older generation that, too, thinks "they" ought to do something — anything — whatever is needed. The trouble of it is that all of us together make up that elusive "they." And unless we do whatever it is that needs to be done — well, who's going to do it.

Our young friend is a senior in high school. That means, presumably, that in about six weeks he'll be facing that question at a far more serious level than what to do with his time in the evening because there isn't anything to do with his time but go to a show. Perhaps he and his classmates — if there are others who share his views, could practice a little before they are graduated next month on doing something for themselves.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round— Sen. Bricker Victim of Duck Frustration

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Just how Sen. John Bricker of Ohio happened to introduce his famous constitutional amendment limiting the treaty-making powers of the President has now become clear.

The original cause of it all was ducks.

The Bricker amendment, which tied up the Senate for several weeks of debate last year and will repeat again this year, was born of the senator's avid passion for duck-shooting and his vehement dislike for federal game wardens who police the plush duck marshes established by his friends along the shores of Lake Erie.

These have been developed at a cost of around $100,000 per marsh, and Senator Bricker just sees red when, after all this investment, his friends from Cleveland and Toledo can't enjoy their shooting without interference from federal game wardens.

However, game wardens operate under a treaty — in this case, the migratory bird treaty between the United States and Canada. And this, it develops, is what got the senator fighting mad against the treaty-making powers of the President and tied up the Senate in so many weeks of debate.

For, under the constitution as written by the founding fathers, a treaty supersedes any state law; thus the treaty on migratory birds supersedes any law of duck-shooting passed by the state of Ohio.

Senator Bricker used to be governor of Ohio, and feels that his state has some rights regarding ducks; also that his business friends have a right to shoot ducks — even if a little bait is found in the vicinity — after they spent over $100,000 to fix duck marshes.

Therefore, he wants to set aside the treaty-making powers of the President. His amendment would permit each of the 48 different states to have 48 different laws on duck-shooting. Thus near Toledo where Bricker likes to sit behind a duck blind in knee boots and leather jacket, state law might permit him to entice ducks within gunshot with bait; while in Michigan a few miles away, bait might be vetoed — all according to how the duck-shooting lobbies persuaded state legislatures to vote.

Of late, Senator Bricker has been having a hard time. The law, and the judges, and the game wardens have been going against him. One of his friends, Maurice Kocher of Toledo, was just given one of the stiffest penalties in duck-shooting history by U. S. Judge Ralph W. Freeman — a $500 fine and six months suspended sentence, plus probation for two years.

Senator Bricker doesn't like this. That's one reason why he summoned John L. Farley, head of the fish and wildlife division of the Interior Department, to his office and bawled him out the other day.

Previously Bricker had succeeded in getting the civil servant who headed the wildlife division, Albert Day, fired. But now he feels that the new Republican appointee, Farley, isn't doing any better. Or rather, that he's just as strict as the Democratic holdover.

Meanwhile, Fred Jacobson, the young game warden who is so relentless in arresting Bricker's friends and business associates, has been named "man of the year" by the Ohio Outdoor Writers Association.

So, faced with all this opposition — or lack of cooperation even from the new Republican regime in the Interior Department — Senator Bricker has reintroduced his constitutional amendment. If he can't change duck-hunting enforcement, he's just going to have to change the constitution.

Yalta-Go-Round

Despite denials, Secretary of State Dulles did plan to release the Yalta papers last September during the election campaign. The release was held up only because the documents weren't ready. . . . Dulles had approved a time schedule which also called for release of the Potsdam papers last January, the Tehran files this spring, and the Cairo papers this summer. Neither the Yalta nor Potsdam papers were ready for release on time. However, the Potsdam, Tehran and Cairo documents are now ready and awaiting Dulles' okay. . . . The Yalta release caused such an uproar, however, that the Secretary of State is worried. He may hold up release of the others indefinitely.

Dr. Jordan Says— Individual Must Determine Amount of Sleep Needed

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Assuming that a person from birth to death sleeps an average of 8 hours in each 24, and that this person lives to the age of 70, over 23 years of his lifetime will be spent asleep. This simple calculation causes quite a jolt but it certainly does make sleep look important.

If one must spend so much time sleeping, tossing and turning in bed while trying to get to sleep seems an awful waste. Under such circumstances not only does one fail to be refreshed by sleep but also the time is lost from active play or work. Furthermore, too little sleep leads to fatigue and lack of energy, so that full zest for the waking hours is also lost.

Too few hours of sleep or restless sleep appear common, particularly among those who live in cities or are engaged in intellectual or desk work. However, many of those who complain of insomnia sleep better than they think they do and are resentful if told they Worry is doubtless one of the principal causes of insomnia. This worry can result from thinking about one's business or profession just before going to sleep, concern over family or financial troubles or anything else which keeps the mind active.

Some people are able to get into a proper frame of mind for falling asleep by engaging in some hard work just before bedtime. Others find reading quietly produces the desirable state of pre-bedtime relaxation. Violent exercise before bedtime or heavy eating usually interfere with sleep. A short stroll may be all right and a drink of warm milk or some other fluid is often equally helpful. In other words each person who suffers from insomnia should experiment with what pre-bedtime occupation is best suited to his or her own needs.

How much sleep does a person need? At about 15 years old the need is said to be from 9 to 11 hours. At 20 years, 8 or 9 hours is considered best. In adult life there is considerable variation; some people need as many as 9 hours sleep a night and others not more than 6. Again this is a matter which each person has to find out for himself or herself. As long as a person sleeps reasonably soundly and feels refreshed in the morning after sleep, it can be assumed that enough is being obtained.

One question which comes up frequently in the life of someone suffering from loss of sleep is the use of sleeping pills. The sleeping pill habit is easy to fall into and it is wise to be aware of the fact that once started on taking sleeping pills regularly, they are likely to be taken more and more often and in larger and larger doses. This can lead to a very undesirable habit. In fact, there are many cases of chronic and even acute poisoning from the use of sleeping pills, so it is far better not to rely on them regularly but to conquer any sleeping difficulty by safer methods.

Looking Backward ...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Kodak films, smoked glass, automobile eye shades were given special use between 12:30 and 2 p.m. April 28 for viewing by large numbers of Sedalians and others of a partial eclipse of the sun which was about 62 per cent obscured by the moon.

1930

Cecil W. Lower, member of the 1928 class of Smith-Cotton High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lower, Houstonia, was elected president of the student body at Missouri Valley College, Marshall.

1930

Sedalia fared well with its Smith-Cotton High School representatives in the interscholastic tournament at Warrensburg, taking first in debate and like honors with its quartet. The winning debaters representing Pettis and Saline Counties were John McGrath and Robert Thistlethwaite. The quartet victors, coached by Mrs. Eva Graves Walker, were Miss Clara Case, Miss Nadine Hausam, Miss Helen Handley and Miss Dorothy Whitson, with Miss Christine Robinson as accompanist.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Rolla G. Curnutt, a city mail carrier, traded his residence property at 14th and Washington to J. W. Reid for the latter's property at 1511 East Seventh. Mr. and Mrs. Curnutt moved into their newly-acquired home.

1915

Judge O. E. Parsons arrived home from Moberly where he attended an important meeting of the Order of Railway Conductors.

1915

H. Quackenbush and family, Beaman, moved to Sedalia to reside on South Ohio.

1915

A concerted campaign to stop speeding by automobile drivers and motorcycle riders was being waged. Chief of Police John Burger and his force had the cooperation of W. A. Collins, city attorney, and Samuel C. Fuller, police judge. Many arrests ensued, with fines of $25 being assessed against infractors of the city ordinance.

DEATH OF A LEGEND By WILL HENRY

THE STORY: At the robbery of the Gallatin bank, Jesse murders the cashier. Later he stops a traveler on the road and claims to be the brother of Bill Anderson. The bank cashier was an ex-cavalryman and Bill Anderson was shot by a cavalryman during the Civil War.

XVI

WITHIN hours of their return, it was being spread that three days before the Gallatin Bank robbery Bill Anderson's brother, had visited the Samuel farmhouse. He had pleaded with the hard-working Jesse to join him in a dastardly raid on the Daviess County Savings Bank. Indignantly, Jesse had refused. But he had, at Anderson's urging, and after extracting a sacred promise from him to forego the heinous crime, loaned him his favorite black saddle gelding—the very animal which had been found galloping loose in the streets of Gallatin after the murder of poor Mr. Sheets.

A week after the robbery, the sheriff of Daviess County rode up to the office of the sheriff of Clay County, leading a fine black saddlehorse. The animal had been painstakingly traced to one Jesse W. James of Centerville. Action was demanded and, for once, was forthcoming. A posse was made up immediately. Meaningful departure was taken for the Samuel farmhouse. Frank and Jesse were forewarned, of course. They were not at home.

Behind the Daviess County sheriff, a scant three days, came the Pinkertons. Their reception by the Clay County sheriff is best put in the words of William Pinkerton in a subsequent address to a Chicago convention of peace officers.

"When I asked the assistance of the officer in arresting a part of the James gang, he said that he would deputize me and aid me secretly, but owing to the relatives and sympathizers of these men residing in the county, he dared not lend a hand openly. He said that I did not have to live there after the arrest had been made but that he did."

THE trail breaks. The tracks fade. And the summer sun shines brightly on the public square of Corydon, Iowa, June 3, 1871.

The clerk in the County Treasurer's Office looked up to greet the three men and the six large-caliber revolvers.

"No noise now, sonny," requested one of his visitors pleasantly. He was a tall man, the clerk remembered, and had a smile that lit up his whole face with kindly good humor. "We're tax collectors, too, you see, and would like to relieve your office of the burden of counting all those county receipts in the safe yonder."

The clerk backed away, white-faced, his desperate gesture going to the locked safe.

"Why don't you try the Obocock Brothers Bank down the street, gentlemen?" he asked pleadingly. "It just opened this very morning!"

The Obocock Brothers Bank occupies a unique niche in America's hall of banking fame—it closed two hours after it opened. Its contribution to the wheatsack was $45,000 in cash.

At the door, and grinningly, the bandits stood aside for the new bank's first legitimate customer. The Rev. Moseman Jones was the ordained shepherd of Corydon's Negro Baptist flock. "I beg your pardon, gentlemen. Can you tell me where I may deposit my savings?"

The smaller of his listeners produced two .44 caliber Colts and jammed them into the terrified minister's stomach. His tall companion stepped forward, bowed graciously, opened the bulging wheat sack. "Right in here, Uncle," he directed politely. Down in the square, the Hon.

H. Clay Dean was booming to his climax. Neither he nor his spellbound audience noticed the jogging approach of the seven horsemen. One of the riders was a smallish man with a heavy beard of sandy hue. Standing in his stirrups, he waved to Dean across the heads of the crowd.

"A point, sir. If you please—" "We yield to the gentleman on horseback!" He returned the interrupting wave regally. "Your question, my young friend?" "Well, sir," the bearded rider called soberly. "Some fellows were just down to the bank and tied up the cashier. All the drawers are cleaned out and I reckon somebody had best get down there in a hurry."

SINCE Corydon, Dingus had murdered again.

It had been more than a year now, but Cole's thoughts took him back to that April day in Adair County, Kentucky, as starkly as though it had been but hours before. . . . There was the Deposit Bank in the little town of Columbia. Outside it, Clell Miller and his own brother, Jim Younger, raced their horses back and forth across the public square, firing, guerrilla yelling, terrorizing the townfolk. Inside were he and Jesse, backed by Frank and Bill Chadwell, a new recruit. There was the unarmed cashier boldly defying Jesse.

"Give me the keys to the safe!" he could again hear Dingus saying. And the cashier, incredibly, replying, "You go to blazes!"

Jesse had his gun in the youngster's belly. Cole could still hear the muffled burst of the three shots, smell again the stink of the powder-burn on the cashier's shirtfront, see again the stare of those tortured eyes, dead and set before their brave owner fell into the counter and spun to the floor.

Cole remembered, too, the price of that cashier's life—less than $400 from the counter till, to be split among seven men.

Cole was still thinking on it as the lamp in the Samuel window loomed ahead.

What They Say... The World Today— Knowland Has Misgivings

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland, Republican Senate leader, has repeated misgivings that if this country tries to talk peace face to face with the Communists it may lose its shirt.

This hardly indicates full confidence in the Eisenhower administration's ability to come out even in dealing directly with the Reds. The administration has just expressed willingness to have Formosa cease-fire talks with the Red Chinese.

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles seem to have confidence enough in themselves to believe they can at least talk with the Reds about a cease-fire without coming home in a barrel.

Last weekend the Chinese Communists suggested talks with the United States to "relax tension" in the Formosa area. At first the State Department said there could be no discussion concerning anything in the area unless Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government sat in.

Knowland, California Republican who is a strong opponent of yielding an inch of Formosa or other Chiang-held islands, had an immediate reaction to the Red Chinese suggestion:

Direct negotiations with the United States—the Red Chinese seemed to say Chiang must be left out—could only "lead to a Munich, Yalta, or to a Geneva-type conference." At Geneva the French last year let the Reds have half of Viet Nam.

But this week Eisenhower and Dulles softened the State Department's Saturday statement by saying they would have cease-fire talks with the Chinese Communists so long as Chiang and Formosa were not directly affected.

Yesterday Knowland had another statement which suggested the Reds were up to their old tricks of double-cross and could not be trusted. This statement didn't contain language as strong as the previous one.

Last month when Eisenhower and Sen. George (D-Ga) were publicly discussing the possibility of Big Four talks, Knowland said:

There are substantial dangers in a big power conference which he believes would show the Western Allies divided. He said some American allies are "appeasement-minded" and might isolate the United States at a meeting with Russia.

That was on March 23, but on March 30 he shifted his position and suggested a high-level big power conference this year to deal with European questions.

THE LITTLE GIRL came home with the slip her parents were to sign if they wanted her to have the vaccination for polio and her father immediately signed.

"Didn't you see it costs $15," asked the little girl.

"Yes," replied the father.

"But—do you think you can pay $15 for it?" she queried.

"I think we can find the money for it," her father assured her.

"Well," confessed the youngster, "it really was only 15c but I thought if it was $15 you wouldn't sign it, so I made it $15."—H.L.

De-Kinked, and How, But Wants Hair Back

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Joe Hamilton didn't like his kinky hair but he's convinced that it was better than what he's got today—none at all.

He told officers he tried a friend's solution to straighten kinky hair and came out with a bald, baked noggin. But he said he didn't want his friend, Leon Stamps, prosecuted. He said he would be satisfied if Stamps would pay the hospital bill and find some other solution to get his hair back.

The solution: Marshled potatoes, petroleum jelly, soap and lye.

Texas Fights Comies

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Raymond Lawrence Fitzgerald, 26, pleaded guilty to burglarizing a bar he had been patronizing. But jurors suspended his five-year sentence after he convinced them that:

He was a childhood polio victim. He later had tuberculosis and was released from a Denver hospital last year. His wife is expecting a baby in July.

He will walk the straight and narrow in the future. Fitzgerald admitted taking $95 and a box of cigars by forcing the front door of the bar.

CHURCHILL: A Man and an Era

By Ward Cannel and Ralph Lane

Gadget King: Housewives' Friend---Or Is It Foe?

Twenty-five French-friend potato slices come out of this gadget at one fell swoop. The slicer is one of the gadgets David Margulies makes to simplify and clutter up the lives of gimmick-loving American kitchen-tenders.

BY BETSY WADE
NEA Staff Writer

NEWARK, N. J. — (NEA) — If the American homemaker can scarcely fight her way through dinner preparation because of all the gadgets she's supposed to use, she has one man to blame for the majority of her woes.

That man, a 31-year-old businessman, is David Margulies, of Newark. He thinks of himself as the "gadget king," or the "housewives' best friend," but many women wouldn't swear to the latter title.

Margulies' palace is a vortex for the whirlpool kitchen gadget

J. ADDINGTON WAGNER: Junior's question stirred him up.

Next Legion Boss Heeded Son's Query

By NEA Service

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. — (NEA) — One night after six-year-old "Add" Wagner, III, had finished his evening prayer he looked up and asked:

"Daddy, am I going to have to go to war and fight?"

His father, J. Addington Wagner, a prominent 41-year-old attorney here, mumbled a reply designed to pacify the youngster. But the lad's query started him thinking and he wound up arriving at two conclusions.

He decided that his son might have to go to war, just as he had done, as a Navy officer in the Pacific during World War II.

He also decided if his son did have to fight for his country he wanted the country to be as prepared as possible, to make sure that the boy would not be a victim of "too little, too late."

From this thinking he also made up his mind to pursue his work in the American Legion even more ambitiously than he had been doing, and if possible, become national commander some day. He had already held several national committee jobs in the Legion.

Well, barring an act of God between now and next fall, Add Wagner will be the next commander of the Legion. By some mysterious process known as "king making," the Legion selects its new commander about half-way between national conventions.

There will be a formal election at the next fall convention, with campaigns and roll calls, but this contest is more of a test of strength to see who is leading for the job for the following year. This may sound a little strange but that's the way Legion politics work.

Wagner insists he can't assume he will be the next commander until after the convention. But if he is, he says, he will not forget his son's query. He will devote his administration to encouraging maximum preparedness of the country against enemy attack.

industry. From it whirl dozens of garlic presses, potato bakers, French-fry slicers, food choppers, mincers, warmers, serves and only Margulies knows what else.

These labor-saving devices go out to local housewares stores and hardware mongers and by mail order. They eventually get tangled up with batches of other gadgets in the kitchen drawer.

Many are a real boon. The potato-baker, a sort of bed of spikes upon which a dinner's worth of potatoes are impaled, causes potatoes to bake evenly in less time.

Demon Margulies has invented and marketed an affair that slices a potato into French-fry slices in a trice.

Say the good wife has peeled the potatoes, preparatory to boiling them. Husband comes into the kitchen, seeks out the gadget he bought and in a few minutes has sliced enough potatoes for the American League on a hungry day.

The enslaved cook must then heat up the fat, blanch, fry, drain and warm the potatoes and then get rid of the boiling fat. Husband doesn't like French-fries that well anyway. They give him heartburn.

But he bought the gadget, so what can one do?

Margulies likes all this. He likes to sell labor-saving devices. After all, madame homemaker didn't have to slice the potatoes, did she?

It all started at David Margulies' mother's knee. He saw her doing the commonplaces of home-making and swore that his wife, which he didn't have yet, would never have to do these onerous tasks. Cooking would be fun.

Four years ago, he did get married and had to make his promise good.

His first item to ease pretty Mrs. Margulies' way into homemaking was the gourmet's dowsy, the garlic press. He had heard about it from friends in Italy. There were none here.

So he brought the garlic press to the American shores.

A garlic press, for those who don't own one, looks like a doll's potato ricer. The garlic clove goes into the pot and gets mashed out in long odoriferous strings. Margulies has sold more than a million and a half garlic presses in less than three years.

As a consequence of the garlic press, the potato baker, the flame-tamer, the steam basket, the meat chopper and about a thousand items, Margulies is a very rich man at 31.

And the American home is cram full of little mechanical things.

Owner Burns—Burns Car
SALEM, Mass. — An unidentified motorist drove his 1946 coupe into a blazing dump and stood by while it burned. He explained to the caretaker that he recently out-fitted the car with four new tires and a battery, but couldn't get more than $25 for it from used car dealers or junkyard operators.

"I've had enough," he declared as the exploding gas tank reduced the car to a heap of metal.

Quick dessert: fold baby-food chopped prunes into slightly sweetened whipped cream. Add a little vanilla flavoring and spoon into sherbet glasses. Chill and serve to delighted family or guests.

Tigers Defeat Jays In Central Missouri Conference 12-4

First Conference
Baseball Victory;
Third CMC Game
With MMA May 4

Smith-Cotton High School Tigers won their first Central Missouri Conference baseball game Wednesday when they defeated the Jefferson City Simonsen High School Jays. The game was played on the Liberty Park diamond and saw the Tigers win 12 to 4.

The Jays scored the first run in the top of the second inning, but the lead was short lived. The Tigers came back in the bottom half of the inning to tally 3 runs for the lead.

The Tiger lead was like the Jays brief lead. The Jays made a three run rally in the top of the third to knot the game up 4-4.

It was in the bottom of the fifth when the Tigers broke loose and pushed across four runs to take over the lead and were never threatened from then out. They rallied across the plate four more runs in the bottom of the sixth to put a clincher on the game.

Hitting of the Tigers were bunched for counters through the entire game. Extra base hits by Newman, a three sacker; Mines a double, were timely for runs. Newman's hit went for three runs ahead of him and he scored on Lane's hit in sixth. Mines double

Pilot Grove Wins Track Meet And Smash 5 Records

Pilot Grove High School track team won the Cooper County Activities Association track meet on Tuesday.

Tommy Anderson broke three meet records and Jimmy Lammers broke two. Only three schools, Pilot Grove, Booneville Catholic and Buncombe, were entered and they finished in that order. The winners scored 85 1/2 points to 47 1/2 for BCHS and 29 1/2 for Buncombe.

Anderson ran the 800 in 2:06, leaped to 5 feet, 6 1/2 inches in the high jump and 20 feet in broad jump to crack the records.

Lammers tossed the shot 42 ft., 4 ins., and the discus 126 ft., 5 ins. to set other records. Raymond Oler is athletic coach for Pilot Grove.

BR League To Have Two New Sponsors

The Sedalia Babe Ruth League will have two new and additional sponsors of teams for this season. The Anderson Heating and Air Condition Co., owned by Don Anderson, and the Mullins' Men's and Boy's Wear, managed by Don Weller will each have teams. This gives a total of six teams in the Babe Ruth League for 1955.

The four firms which sponsored teams in 1954 will also have teams this year. They are Taystee Baking Co., Western Auto Stores, Brown's Supply, and the Phillips 66. Each sponsor will have 15 boys on its team, meaning 90 Sedalia boys between the ages of 13 and 15 will be playing ball.

Each team must consist of a minimum of five, thirteen year old boys and a maximum of five, fifteen year old boys. Final tryouts will be held on Friday, April 29th at 5:00 p.m. and on Saturday, April 30th at 10:00 a.m. The boys are urged to be in their best form at these last two tryouts, as the managers and coaches will be there looking for the best material.

The player auction will be held on Tuesday, May 3rd at the Schien Truck Line office at 7:30 p.m. This auction will be conducted by Player Agent, Frank Hanigan. All sponsors are urged to be there with their managers and coaches. It is anticipated that there will be some keen competition in the bidding.

The opening game of the season is set for Monday, May 23rd.

Musial, Stanky Not Worried By The Man's Start

NEW YORK (AP)—There are at least two people who aren't worried about Stan (the man) Musial's slow start in the National League batting race.

Those two are Eddie Stanky, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Musial himself. Stan, who owns a .344 lifetime batting mark with the Cards, said today he never was a good hitter in the spring with the exception of last season. He's hitting only .227 with 10 hits in 44 trips to the plate.

Musial said rainy weather coupled with postponements isn't conducive to good timing at the plate but pointed out:

"I'll be back in stride before this trip is over."

Since the season opened the Cards have ayeed only 10 games. They've had four open dates and three games rained out.

Stanky, who knows all about Musial's work at the plate, commented:

"I wish my only concern was Musial's batting. I'm not worried about it at all."

Musial, talking of his earlier bad start, recalled he was only hitting .220 on June 15, 1947, the year he had an appendectomy, but finished the season with .312. In 1949 he just reached the .300 mark before the annual All-Star game but a late spurt gave him a .336 average—just three points short of winning another batting crown.

A&M Favored to Set New Records at Drake In Fast-Paced Relays

DES MOINES (AP)—The annual Drake Relays open their 46th run tomorrow and a wholesale revision of records is anticipated if the weather is good.

Shooting for new marks will be a field of 2,024 athletes in the university, college and high school divisions.

Okla. A&M will return to the relays following a mutual agreement with Drake not to compete with each other on the athletic field as a result of the Johnny Bright football incident in 1951.

The Aggies are likely to make a glittering return. They have fleet quartets entered in seven relays and are listed as probable record smashers in three—the mile, four-mile and sprint medley.

Drake dopesters also peg Oklahoma A&M with the "possibility" of new records in the 900-yard and the two-mile relays.

Wes Santee of Kansas, American mile recordholder at 4:00.5, appears certain to go under the Drake mark of 4:14.5.

Sparked By Chamberlain and Hall—

Versailles Thinclads Win Tri-County Conference Meet

The Tri-County Conference track meet was captured Wednesday afternoon at Eldon by the Versailles High School thinclads who added up 59 1/2 points to lead the pack. Seven new track marks were made for the Conference.

The California Pintos chalked up 38 1/2 points for second place. Results of the other schools gave Eldon 28, Tipton 18, Camdenton 8, while Stover picked up two points.

The Versailles team was sparked by Charles Chamberlain who racked up 15 points in winning three firsts, and Kent Hall who was on his heels with 14 points.

Chamberlain broke his conference record of :10.5 seconds in the 100 yard dash set in 1953 by running the distance in :10.1 today. Chamberlain also won the 220 yard dash in :23.6 and took the 180-yard low hurdles in :21.9 seconds.

'Prince Noor' In Pre-Derby Competition

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Prince Noor drew top weight of 126 pounds—the full Kentucky Derby impost—against nine other Derby hopefuls in the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes today at Keeneland. With 10 starters the winner would get $22,437.

Hasty House Farms entered Prince Noor, winner of the Everglades Stakes, and Alibit yesterday despite reports that Prince Noor would pass the Blue Grass for the Derby Trial next Tuesday at Churchill Downs.

The Blue Grass, a furlong short of Derby distance at 1 1/4 miles, and the trial are figured the last chances for hopeful 3-year-olds to earn a spot against heralded Nashua and Summer Tain the May 7 Downs classic.

Post time for the feature of Keeneland's final day of spring racing was 4:30 p.m., Central Daylight Time. The weather forecast was for partly cloudy skies, with a chance of late afternoon showers.

Second weighted for the Blue Grass at 123 pounds each were Murcin Stable's Jean's Joe, winner of the San Felipe Stakes and second to Swaps in the Santa Anita Derby, and C. F. Morris's Munchausen, a winner at Gulfstream. Drawing 121 pounds were Alibit, Hutcherson, Racing Fool, Speed Rouser, Nabesna, Make Ready and Shannon Comet.

'Sore-Arm' Hurls A's to Three-Hit Win Over Boston

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Lou Boudreau should have at least part of that worried look wiped of his face by a smile today.

His Kansas City Athletics, behind the three-hit pitching of Cloyd Boyer, dropped the Boston Red Sox yesterday at the A's home park, 6-2, for their third straight victory.

The victory moved the Athletics into a sixth-place tie with Washington in the American League. Both have 5-7 records.

Boyer, an ex-member of the St. Louis Cardinals, had his only trouble in the fourth and fifth innings. Faye Throneberry hit a bases-empty homer in the fourth. Then Boyer issued two of his six walks in the next frame after Norm Dauchin hit a lead-off double. But he escaped with only one run on a strikeout and infield liner sandwiched around a sacrifice fly.

Boston managed to hit only 10 balls out of the infield against Boyer, one of about six "sore-armed" pitchers on the A's staff. Bill Renna, Gus Zernial and Bill Wilson all hit homers behind Boyer's pitching and Wilson also came up with a pair of doubles.

The A's big inning came on four runs in the third when Boyer, Power and Jim Finigan singled ahead of Zernial's three-run homer.

Despite Home Run Power A's Are Tied for Sixth Position

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

It may be those Kansas City steaks, but the Athletics are sprouting biceps and a home run punch. Trouble is, they were better off as puny singles hitters back in Philadelphia.

The A's have swatted 17 home runs so far, yet have won only 5 of 12 games. A year ago, with a mere four homers, they were 7-5. And in '53, with nine home runs, they also were 7-5.

The A's have a three-game winning streak going now, of course, and may be set to pad it. But the 1954 crew had won three straight after their 12th game too.

Bill Renna, Gus Zernial and Bill Wilson connected for homers yesterday as the A's, with a dandy three-hit performance by sore-arm Cloyd Boyer, knocked off the Boston Red Sox 6-2. That left the A's, despite their 5-7 mark, in a tie for sixth place with Washington, just 2 1/2 games behind the White Sox in a surprisingly tight AL race.

Chicago took first by clubbing the New York Yankees 13-4. The Yanks slipped to a second-place tie with Cleveland—only 21 percentage points back—as the Indians beat Washington 6-5 in 17 innings. Detroit replaced Boston in fourth place by beating Baltimore 11-3.

In the National, Brooklyn beat Cincinnati 7-2 last night to stay three games up on Milwaukee. The Braves whipped the New York Giants 9-6 in a day game. Pittsburgh slipped out of the cellar as the Redlegs fell in, beating Chicago 4-1.

Boyer, a St. Louis Cardinals castoff and brother of Redbird rookie Ken Boyer, was troubled only by his own wildness and Faye Throneberry's home run as he beat the sagging Red Sox. He walked the bases full in the fifth after Norb Zauchin's leadoff double and Billy Goodman's sacrifice fly scored the other Boston run.

The White Sox got four-hit relief work from Billy Pierce over 6 2/3 innings after Virgil Trucks' departure. Pierce won it, with Walt Dropp hammering home three runs with fourth and fifth-inning homers. Sherm Lollar homered for two as the Sox routed Whitey Ford with five runs in the first.

The Yanks also lost hard-hitting Bill Skowron for an indefinite time when he pulled a leg muscle running out a triple. The young first baseman leads the AL with a .451 average.

Cleveland didn't shake off Washington until Bobby Avila lifted a sacrifice fly with the bases loaded and one out in the 17th inning. Both clubs used four hurlers. Chuck Stobbs lost it and Art Houtteman won it. Mickey Vernon batted in four of the Nats' runs with a three-run homer off starter Early Wynn in the third and a single that tied it in the seventh.

Detroit had a grand-slam from catcher Frank House, his first in the majors, and three free runs to beat the Orioles. Bill Miller walked five in a row for two Tiger runs in the fifth and Lou Kretlow gave up a single before walking three in a row for another gift in the eighth.

Pitching was the big thing in the National League games. Bob Purkey gave up just four hits as Pittsburgh snapped a three-game Chicago winning streak.

At the Polo Grounds, big Gene Conley held the Giants to two hits for eight innings and had a 9-1 lead that withstood a five-run New York rally in the ninth. Five Milwaukee runs chased starter Ruben Gomez in the second.

Americans Won Battle With Bourbon

NEW YORK (AP)—America introduced a secret weapon to win a draw with the Russians in an odd hospitality war fought along the Elbe River 10 years ago.

That weapon, it now may be revealed, was Kentucky's bottled breakfast of champions — 100-proof bourbon.

As soon as the two Allied armies linked up, a number of celebrations were held. In the first flush of enthusiasm they were largely spontaneous get-togethers between small groups of individuals or officers from both armies, marked by cordiality and good will on both sides.

But as the parties went up, echelon by echelon, from division to corps to army level, the atmosphere subtly changed. The cordiality and good will became formalized.

In this exchange of hospitality the Russians held a big edge. The wealthy Wall Street imperialists had little more than stern canned combat rations to offer. The simple virtuous peasant Soviet warriors, on the other hand, seemed to have a pipeline of plenty that led straight to Moscow. When they were hosts, the tables groaned with piles of caviar, fat cheeses, fresh cucumbers, all kinds of rich tidbits you usually find only in expensive restaurants — and an endless number of carafes filled with vodka.

The Russians took a rude de light in trying to toast the Americans under the table. And it must be admitted that many of our men, worn down by months of clean living in the field, were ill-prepared to face the Soviet vodka barrage. As one officer remarked weakly after the 20-umph toast:

"I thought Russian roulette was played with revolvers, not vodka glasses."

The lavishness reached its peak at a party thrown by Marshal Ivan Zonov, now Russian deputy minister of defense, for Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley and his staff.

Forewarned on the insidious impact of vodka, Bradley and his officers had guarded against it by swallowing quantities of canned milk and mineral oil.

Konev himself, a bald, powerfully built man, proved the first loophole in the Russian hospitality siege. He turned down the vodka and reached for a glass of white wine as an interpreter explained, "the marshal has stomach trouble."

Bradley, who is no drinking man himself, immediately switched to white wine, too, and had no trouble matching Konev to toast for toast. Grinning, Bradley leaned over to a correspondent friend and whispered, "How'm I doing?" He was doing perfectly. So were his mineral-oil-fortified staff. They easily met the Russian officers on equal terms.

Following a tremendous repast, a Red army chorus sang the "Star Spangled Banner," but apparently were safe from being corrupted by it as they had memorized the lyrics without understanding them.

A ballet troupe, obviously professional, then put on a splendid performance, but when Bradley praised the dancers, Konev merely remarked blantly:

"Just a few girls from the Red army."

When it came time for Bradley to hold a return courtesy party, a question arose over what liquid refreshments to offer.

"They served us their national 'We'll introduce them to one of ours—bourbon."

Although it was evident the Russian officers had been warned to be on their best behavior, two of them quickly wilted under the belting of bourbon toasts. After a polite snifter, Konev turned to his interpreter with a strained look and muttered, "Too strong. Too strong."

After dinner a violinist who had been specially flown there from Paris entertained the group. When Konev praised his playing as magnificent, Bradley replied with a straight face:

"Oh, it's really nothing. He's just one of our American soldiers."

The violinist happened to be a guy named Jascha Heifetz.

Ten years later Gen. Bradley still feels that — thanks to bourbon and Heifetz — the Americans earned at least a draw in their hot hospitality war with the Russians on the river Elbe.

Thursday Is Final Day of Big Exhibit—

Modern Conveniences at the Second Home Show Win Admiration of Men and Women

They were insulating houses a hundred years ago, and one of the booths at the Home Show being held at Convention Hall, Liberty Park, has something to prove it. Mud and straw about two or three inches thick had been wrapped around an ordinary narrow board and was put in the studding of a house at Cole Camp built a century ago. Of course it is very different from the mineral wool used today and also on display at the Home Show, but it was a form of insulation.

Tonight is the last night of the Home Show sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and there are many interesting things to see.

Not only that but upstairs they are serving hot coffee from a hot water tank. This tank is glass lined with a coating of glass permanently fused to the steel, and it never rusts, never corrodes. On the same floor in another booth is the copper-lined tank within a steel tank and it, too, never rusts or corrodes.

Bathroom fixtures are in all beautiful shades for today's home goes in for color. There are pastels, a dark red color and of course various white. The lavatories are of various designs, the tubs all sizes and shapes—they may be long or fit into a corner of the bathroom.

The sinks are of all colors, too, and kitchens of rainbow shades are something to start the queens of the kitchens day dreaming. They may have cabinets of a delicate yellow at the top with the lower cabinets a pretty shade of blue, or any color combination they want. Too, the oven and the range are separate so that she might have her range on one side of the room and the oven on the other or she might have them together.

Then there is something new in water faucets. That fingertip control that by touching a lever you might have water of any temperature from hot to cold and there is only one moving part so it isn't always out of fix.

If you want to have cabinets for your kitchen made to order the Home Show has a booth where a firm does that, too. Not only cabinets but any kind of furniture, beds, vanities, chest of drawers, coffee tables, anything. You name it and they will make it. They also make trims.

And there are automatic washers and dryers in several of the booths. One washes, rinses and spins drying five times and then there is the suds saver so that, if you want, you may save the suds and use them over again. Another combination washer and dryer is simple to open and either gas or electricity may be used. And there is the new washer that filters the water all the time while clothes are being washed. This makes the clothes free from lint for all of the lint is in the filter.

There is the upside down refrigerator and the shelves turn out and there is no back to them, the freezer below and the refrigerator is frost free. Food may be put in the refrigerator with the temperature set so it may be soft, hard or anything you want it. If you have ever gone to a refrigerator with your hands full and didn't know how you were going to open the door, you'll appreciate the new foot lever to open the door.

Another refrigerator has rollout shelves, a meat keeper, porcelain bins, and on the door a compartment for butter and cheese products and another one for eggs. There is an 80-pound freezer and nificent, Bradley replied with a straight face:

"Oh, it's really nothing. He's just one of our American soldiers."

The violinist happened to be a guy named Jascha Heifetz.

Ten years later Gen. Bradley still feels that — thanks to bourbon and Heifetz — the Americans earned at least a draw in their hot hospitality war with the Russians on the river Elbe.

automatic defroster. Still another one has a 130-pound frozen storage, and you can get a drink of water without opening the door, just by pressing a button.

A new disposal unit gets rid of anything you want to put in it except tin or glass. Garbage, trash, old clothes, shoes, anything is reduced to ashes and the ashes are good fertilizer when put in flower beds.

And the automatic ironer is something every woman would like to have. Simple to operate, the retractable shoe is located beneath the roll to give perfect visibility for easy inspection. Now the woman of the home may sit and relax as she guides her work with her fingertips.

For floors and walls is ceramic tile in all colors to make beautiful kitchens and bathrooms or any place tile is needed. There is a very expensive handmade tile made in the State of California on display and the colors are screened in with a screen so fine it cannot be seen with the naked eye. This tile is of four blended colors. There is also a tile on which designs are also screened on.

For the house cleaning there are booths with vacuum cleaners. One cleaner automatically shuts off when it is full and the sealed container of dirt may be removed. There are many attachments for every type of cleaning job needed.

And the woman who likes to sew is fascinated with the booths that have sewing machines and attachments which do all the tricks of the trade. There is a sewing machine booth on the first floor and one on the second.

There is a radio without tubes at the Home Show, too. It looks like a handbag and it also comes with a shoulder strap. It is run with four flashlight batteries that last over a year.

There is a new carpet creation shown at the Home Show with deep, luxurious pile that sinks way down and springs back to lasting loveliness. It has beveled edges for perfect installation with a tackless strip. Rust resistant zinc-plated pins and nails are used for correct length and gripping. Beautiful shades and designs are shown with also floral patterns.

"Everything best and newest for the home." That is what the Jaycees said about it. But one booth had another idea. Everything to get you outside the home, they say laughingly, and one of those things was a power motor lawnmower for hubby. But hubby was probably looking on the other side of the booth, for there was a power motor for a boat. And to go with the thought of a motor boat were rods, reels, lures of all kinds, it is time to go fishing. There were guns of all types, too, and

Republicans Hold Song Fest, Rally

An enthusiastic group of Republicans met Monday night at the American Legion Hall.

The meeting was opened with group singing and special music was rendered by Mrs. Frances Roberson, who sang "Trees," and Hugh Jones who sang "The Lord's Prayer". They were accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Jones.

Dr. J. W. Beger showed an educational and entertaining film taken during a hunting trip to Canada. Many beautiful scenes were shown along the Alcan Highway.

Refreshments were served as ideas were exchanged as to what can be done to encourage good government.

Special recognition was given to the committee men and women, Mrs. Bernice Jones, Mrs. Evelyn Cox and the Rev. George Ray, for their efforts in the recent election.

The meeting was adjourned with the closing prayer led by Rev. Ray.

everything in the sporting goods line.

And in case you don't have a power mower and your neighbor won't loan his, there is always a place you can borrow one, according to a booth on the second floor.

An important home item, too, is insurance. There are insurance booths at the show with the idea of trying to sell the home owner on protection against loss in case of fire, wind or anything else that might destroy that home.

Susan Hayward Ends Reconciliation Rumor But Willing to Talk

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Movie actress Susan Hayward has slammed the door shut on the reconciliation hopes of her ex-husband Jess Barker.

The actor, who flew here from New Orleans after Miss Hayward was found near her death from an overdose of sleeping pills Tuesday, still hasn't been able to see her.

She refused to see him in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. Through a press agent of her movie studio she issued a statement yesterday, saying: "There is not the slightest possibility of a reconciliation, but if Mr. Barker can discuss the future of our children (Timothy and Gregory, 9-year-old twins) in a rational manner, I shall always be willing to confer with him."

Miss Hayward was reported well on the way to recovery.

Warrensburg Sorority Initiates Local Girls

Miss Dorothy Dey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dey, 423 East 14th, and Miss Missy Grayston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Grayston, 1112 West Seventh, were formally initiated into Nu Chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, on April 17, 1955.

Miss Dey, a freshman majoring in elementary education, has been appointed assistant program chairman for the next year. She is a member of the Orchestis Club.

Miss Grayston, a freshman majoring in business administration, has been chosen art chairman for the next year.

Physician Gets Term, Fine for Tax Evasion

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Dr. Joseph Backler, 59-year-old St. Louis physician, drew a two-year prison term and a $6,000 fine for federal income tax evasion yesterday.

Federal Judge George H. Moore stayed execution of the sentence until May 18 to permit Dr. Backler to get his personal affairs in order.

Judge Moore, imposing sentence on the physician's plea of guilty to evading payment of $5,782 in 1947 taxes, called it a "flagrant case." Dr. Backler had asked for probation.

Another count charging Dr. Backler with evading payment of $5,461 in 1948 was dismissed at the request of the government.

Farms Near Clarksburg To Alaskans

By Myrtle Yarnell
CLARKSBURG — Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Moser have sold their 43 acre farm near here to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Line of Anchorage, Alaska, who are coming here to reside. Walter G. Pennington also sold them 40 acres of land.

A severe wind and hail storm visited this area Saturday afternoon doing much damage to crops, trees and some buildings as well as telephone lines where the tornado hit.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hunt and son, who have been living near Booneville, have moved back here and are living on one of Major Rowles' farms. Mr. Hunt is employed by Col. William Winebrenner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Douglas went to Sedalia Monday and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Arron Smith to Kansas City to attend a ball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bunch, Coriscana, Tex., spent Thursday night with Mrs. Margaret Hurt and Miss Myrtle Sappington and next day took them to Jefferson City.

Mrs. Henry Dahlstein is staying with the C. D. Yarnell family. Mrs. Yarnell is convalescing from an appendectomy.

Floyd Yarnell, Kansas City, and son, Leroy, who is home on leave and Mr. Yarnell's twin brother, Lloyd of Sedalia, spent several hours here Saturday with the C. D. Yarnell family.

Mrs. Alpha Maxey celebrated her 95th birthday April 22. Her sister, Mrs. Meddia Yarnell, Versailles, is visiting her and her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Rea.

Richard Bruce St. Louis, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bruce and Bobbie.

Freddie Bowlin, California, preached here Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist Church.

Prayer meetings are being held each night by the Baptist congregation. A revival begins at the church May 2.

School closed here last week.

Kenneth Heather left last week for his air base in Texas after spending a furlough here.

Publishers Re-elect Slocum By Tradition

NEW YORK — Richard W. Slocum is slated for re-election as president of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. at its concluding convention session today.

Slocum, executive vice president of the Philadelphia Bulletin, is opposed for a second term. ANPA presidents customarily serve two terms.

Membership in the ANPA rose to 801, with 27 newspapers elected to membership.

The convention adopted a resolution expressing regret at the death of 69 editors and publishers since the last meeting.

"These men and women, so well endowed by temperament, judgment and comprehension, helped to make and maintain the American press as the great institution it is today," the resolution said.

The work of the ANPA Research Institute laboratory at Easton, Pa., was to have been televised live via close circuit yesterday from the laboratory to the convention. However, reception of the program broke down and the showGood in K ng;Mornid28t pol first 23

T&C Announces Expansion Plans For Four Units

The Town & Country Shoe Co., Inc., has announced plans for expansion that will mean a substantial increase in payrolls and production in all four of its factories, including the Sedalia factory, within the next few months.

As a part of their 1955 expansion plans, the company has engaged the full time services of seven additional merchandisers.

"The new fall line which has already been displayed to many Eastern franchise dealers will be shown by these new men in many parts of the United States that we have not contacted previously.

The efforts of our merchandisers in opening new accounts can only result in increased production and employment in all of our factories," according to C. W. Mathison, executive vice-president.

Steady production throughout the year is another benefit Town and Country plans to derive from this expansion of their sales force.

Central Stock System Seen More Economical

The United Shoe Company has announced the setting up of their newest department in their plant department next to the Sedalia Commissary in the Heel Plant building.

This department is under the direction of P. J. Hedderich and Clyde Williams and will stock one to twelve each of some 1500 different United Shoe machinery parts. In addition it will stock parts for Singer machines.

The central stock plan is considered more economical than the old method of each factory keeping its own stock. The central stock will be more complete.

HOUSTON, Tex. — President Lou Witt of the Gulf Coast Photographers Assn. was pretty weary of speeches when it came his turn. After the announcement, "We will now have Mr. Witt's address," he responded: "5418 Timber Creek Drive" and sat down.

Harlan, Kentucky Stricken By Unemployment Problems

HARLAN, Ky. — This community's economic heart died March 14.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad was struck that day and one of the first casualties was Harlan County's 6,500 coal miners.

All are out of work. They're worried; the operators are worried; and some businessmen are preparing for a slump.

Since he is losing $18.75 a day in wages, the miner must fall back on unemployment compensation—$28 a week. Before the strike the county's average claim load was about 2,000 cases a month. Now it is four times greater.

Most of the coal firms are helping by extending credit to their men at the company stores. Some permit unlimited credit; others $4-$5 a day.

Privately, some miners will admit their sympathy lies with the strikers. When the coal mines were strike-bound during the war years, it was the railroader who suffered.

What about the miner's boss? "Until March, our picture looked better than it had for two or three years," says George S. Ward, secretary of the Harlan County Coal Operators Assn.

"We had prospects of increased shipments to the Great Lakes but the strike has gone on so long, some firms have lost these orders."

The Harlan field ships 8 million tons or more of coal a year and has shipped as high as 14 million. But Ward says the operators are afraid customers will turn to another field next year.

Time is also a factor. The railroad plans a 35 cent a ton rate increase on steam (fine) coal on June 20 and most operators want to get their orders filled before then.

Ward says, however, the "frame of mind here isn't as low as it was in February, 1954, when there were no coal orders."

Some merchants disagree. Their customers come from the 4,786 residents here and the 65,000 in the county. "Up until two weeks ago," said one, "optimism was high and people continued to trade because they expected the strike to be settled."

Today, he continued, "people are holding on to what little they've got until work starts again. I'm worried about the future. Remember, the miners won't get a payday for some time."

The Modern Bakery, which serves 20 counties in Southeastern Kentucky and Virginia, reports a 20 per cent cut in production. Six of its 142 employees have been laid off and the working hours of the others were cut 10 per cent.

The grocers, whose supplies are coming in mainly by truck, feel their business has been ruined for at least a year. As one put it: "It's surprising how little people will eat when they're not working."

Small Hunters Find Over 50 Snakes In Heart of Home Town

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. — Three small boys, with the courage of big-game hunters, have found a veritable jungle in the heart of Winston-Salem.

From a vacant lot in just two days, the trio has brought back more than 50 wriggling reptiles alive.

Both hunters and snakes are small sized. Clay Victor, 8, Curtis Motsinger and Eddie Pennell, both 6, say they hope to sell their snakes, "if we get a chance."

They added, however, they had received no offers. But until such offers come, they're making the most of their prizes. The snakes make them the envy of every boy in the neighborhood, and besides, one of the boys said, "You sure can make girls run."

Neutral Party May Represent Nationalists

WASHINGTON — Sen. George (D-Ga.) suggested today the possibility that some neutral nation might represent the Chinese Nationalists at any international talks aimed at settling the future of Formosa.

George said that "unavoidably we would have to bring in the Chinese Republic or some representative of the Chinese Republic" to such a conference. But he added in an interview that Chiang Kai-shek's interest could be represented by "any agreed representative," such as a neutral nation.

Any such proposal was certain to be opposed by Chiang and by Nationalist supporters in this country. Formosa, Chiang's seat of government, is claimed both by him and the Communists.

George, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, has expressed high hopes for a meeting between the United States and Communist China. After Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai suggested talks aimed at easing tensions in the Formosa Strait, it was George who said such talks could be held whether the Nationalists are present or not.

President Eisenhower agreed yesterday that Chiang would not necessarily have to be represented in talks with Chou.

But Eisenhower also told his news conference that "when it comes to talking about the affairs that involve our ally bound to us by treaty (Chiang) we are not going to talk behind their backs."

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.), a strong Chiang supporter, took direct issue yesterday with what he called an administration intention "to negotiate directly with the Chinese Communists."

Knowland threw out a hint that he might resign his position as U.S. Senate GOP leader if his views toward Formosa and those of the administration continue to diverge.

In reply to questions, he said the administration's policy on Formosa "does not, up to the present moment," affect his position as the Senate's Republican leader. He declined to discuss this aspect further.

Chou Goes Home After He Signs Indonesia Paper

JAKARTA, Indonesia — Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai left home by air today after several days of talks with Indonesian officials. He was the last of the top delegates at the Bandung Asian-African conference to go.

Chou and Indonesian Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo signed a joint statement at Jakarta's Kemajoran Airport before the Indian Airline Constellation took off with the Communist chief.

The statement was not made public immediately. A reliable source said it was aimed at strengthening the mutual friendship of the two countries on the basis of a good neighbor policy.

Chou and Sastroamidjojo announced soon after the Bandung parley opened that an agreement on the touchy question of the nationality of the three million persons in Indonesia of Chinese extraction.

The treaty they signed April 22 gives such persons a year to choose Indonesian citizenship or be considered Chinese citizens. China previously had insisted that all persons of Chinese descent, no matter where they lived or had been born, were Chinese citizens.

A government source said Chou invited Sastroamidjojo to visit Peking. Sastroamidjojo reportedly accepted.

Japanese High Court Frees Allied Accuser

TOKYO — Japan's supreme court yesterday freed a Communist member of the Diet who was given a one-year sentence for accusing the United States of "atrocities" in Korea.

The high court held unconstitutional a law sponsored by the U.S. occupation forces in 1950 which prohibited "false or destructive criticism" of the Allied powers.

The Communist, Kanichi Kawakami, was sentenced by a lower court for a series of magazine articles.

Mystery Surrounds Kangaroo In the Zoo Over Motherhood Idea

BALTIMORE — How does one know when a lady kangaroo has had a baby?

That's the burning question at the Baltimore Zoo.

Director Arthur R. Watson says, "We're sure the baby is there." But the next minute he hedges: "At least, we think it is."

Watson and the keepers have noticed movement in the mother's pouch for several weeks. And once they thought they saw a tip of tail sticking out. But they can't be sure—the pouch movements might be the mother's nervous reflex twitches.

At birth, baby kangaroos are no bigger than a man's thumb. So until junior grows a few inches and gains enough strength to peek out at those trying to peek in, the secret belongs to Momma.

As for Watson and the rest—they're still hoping. There's never been a kangaroo birth in the history of the zoo.

Weather Looks Better For Atomic Testing

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev. — Atomic scientists figured they had a 70-30 chance to get Operation Cue, the big civil defense test, on the road today.

Last night's weather briefing pointed to favorable wind patterns and gave hope that the twice-delayed major nuclear test would be held. The test has been postponed twice and many of the thousand or so persons invited by the Federal Civil Defense Administration already have left for home.

Thursday, May 12 — Home agent visit to Thursday Extension Club.
Monday, May 16 — 1:30 p. m. Leader training meeting for Extension Club chairman as follows: Family Relations, Community Improvement, Marketing and Consumer Education and Farm and Home Planning.
Tuesday, May 17 — Home agent visit Dresden Extension Club.

National Home Demonstration Week

May 1-7 is National Home Demonstration Week. The Extension clubs in Pettis county are cooperating with Extension Clubs in Missouri and the United States, Puerto Rico and Hawaii in observance of this event. The Missouri theme is "Food to Keep Us Strong and Able" and the slogan is "You Never Outgrow Your Need For Milk." Special emphasis will be given to the use of milk in the diet as well as the use of educational materials being used as a part of the May club programs.

How To Choose And Use Carrots

Look for carrots that are firm, clean, fresh in appearance, smooth, well shaped and of good orange color.
One pound provides five half-cup servings cooked and eight half-cup servings shredded raw. Store carrots at room temperature or in the refrigerator.
Use them raw for the most food value. For salads, cut or shred just before serving. Cook carrots quickly in a small amount of boiling water. Young whole carrots should be cooked 15 to 20 minutes and older sliced carrots the same amount of time.
Make Cleaning Job Easier
You can save many steps by collecting cleaning tools and supplies and arranging them in a kit which you can carry from room to room. You can make such a kit from a basket or a box — preferably with a handle. Partitions will hold small articles or bottles of cleaning solutions and keep the kit in order. Sometimes an oil cloth lining with pockets is added. These articles are most often needed for the cleaning job: soap, kerosene, turpentine, household ammonia, furniture polish or wax, cloths for polishing and for dusting, art gum eraser, scissors, scouring powder, whitening, chamois skin, newspapers, whisk broom, and small scrub brush.

Eat A Good Breakfast

A "good breakfast" will supply one-fourth to one-third of the daily food and nutritional requirements. It will supply enough food for energy, top quality protein, minerals and vitamins.

A serving of citrus fruit or juice for breakfast is the best assurance that the daily Vitamin C requirement will be met. Whole grain or enriched cereals or breads are energy supplying foods and also good sources of essential B-vitamins. Cereal products supply protein which, when supplemented by milk protein, is utilized to good advantage. Milk is the best source of calcium, — required in larger amounts than other minerals.

Normal healthy adults need at least a pint of milk each day, and children a quart, to supply the recommended amounts of calcium. A good breakfast will supply at least one cup of milk as a beverage or with cereal.

Breakfast eggs supply high quality protein, vitamins and minerals. An egg yolk is a good source of Vitamin A, Vitamin D, and iron. Old or young, active or inactive, overweight or trim — everyone is better off who starts the day with a good breakfast. Some will require less food energy than others and it will take only a small breakfast to supply a fourth to a third of their food and nutritional requirements. They all will need citrus fruit for Vitamin C; either a serving of cereal and milk, or eggs, or both to supply the high quality protein they need; milk for calcium; cereal products for energy and B-vitamins; and egg yolk or vitamin-rich fat for Vitamins A and D.

The great variety of breakfast cereals; the many different breakfast breads, so easily and quickly made; and all the ways of serving eggs and citrus fruits, make possible a tempting variety of breakfast menus. Each will be a "good breakfast" if it supplies its proportionate share of essential nutrients for the day.

Selecting An Automatic Ironer

Automatic ironers are popular and many homemakers are looking forward to adding this piece of labor-saving equipment to their household. This piece of equipment results in easier ironing because the operator is seated while doing the work, and the ironer moves the clothes and exerts the pressure.

There are two main types of automatic ironers — rotary and flat plate. The rotary type with two open ends makes it possible to move the clothes more easily. Most models of this type have the shoe under the roll. On this type the worker is close to the work. The shoe, usually pointed at the end, makes it easier to iron small garments and hard-to-get-at parts. The steam is directed away from the roll to the back of the ironer. Large articles can extend beyond the roll on both ends.

The rotary type is also available in models with only one end open. In most ironers of this type the clothes go over the roll and under the shoe. The ironing surface on rotary ironers equals six hand irons.

The flat plate ironer is best for pressing wool garments and is very fast on flat work. Fitted garments are sometimes easily wrinkled in this ironer. The operator needs to sit on a higher chair to best manipulate the ironer.

The shoe on the flat plate equals 12 hand irons and on junior and portable models, the shoe equals about three hand irons.

WASHABLE PLAYTIME SHOE — Playshot of latex in red, white and blue stripes is completely washable. Laminated sole of compressed foam is in same colors.

Total cost of electricity for ironing with an automatic is about the same as for hand irons because automatics do the job in a shorter time.

Selection points when shopping for an ironer include length and diameter of rolls or ironing surface, the thermostat controlling heat, and whether different heats are available for different fabrics.

Look for an ironer with an easily used safety release, knee or foot controls or combination of the two and two or three speeds.

Other desirable features are a light to indicate when heat is on, a lever to stop or give oscillating action on a rotary, moisture jar under the flat plate board, and shelves or hanger bars for holding ironed articles. Adjustable cas-ters for regulating height are a good feature.

As for care of the ironer, padding should be removed and fluffed or replaced occasionally to avoid packing and hardness. The muslin cover should be laundered

House-To-House

GLOUCESTER, Va. — W. N. Gray was glad he acted the part of a good Samaritan and called the fire department to a blaze in a nearby house in the middle of the night. While the firemen fought the flames Gray took a look at another section of the night sky. A house he owned was burning too. The firemen moved over to Gray's personal blaze and managed to save a farm building although they couldn't do much about the house.

Polio Shots In Manila

MANILA (AP)—Hundreds of children of U.S. military personnel were given the Salk antipolio vaccine yesterday at Clark Air Force Base. The serum was flown from Alameda Medical Depot, Calif.

Microphone Professor CONCORD, N. H. — Prof. Edmund Cortez of the University of New Hampshire was invited to address the state House of Representatives.

The professor stepped up to the House microphone, and gave the lawmakers a five minute dissertation on the proper use of a microphone.

Thieves Are Ignorant PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Thieves who broke into the antique gun and coin shop of John J. Morasco neglected to read up on old coins before doing so. They selected some rare coins and three antique pistols valued at $200 — but ignored other pieces worth five times that much.

Do It Yourself!
RAYMOND, Wash. (AP) — At 65, William Koski has realized a life-long dream. He has a shingle mill, and he built it almost with his own hands.
Working for two years in his spare time, Koski built it all by himself, except for the foundation. He values it at $10,000.
At the start he is producing about 30 squares of shingles a day.

Spring Weather's Made For Perfume and Flowery Dress

By Alicia Hart

Men should catch on by now, but they never seem to until it's spelled out to them in two-dimensional diagrams.

They think of perfume for Christmas. But come springtime and we women start dropping bombshell hints like bunchy bouquets on the dining room table and suggestions for lingering walks through botanical gardens, do they get it? Seldom.

For it is really springtime that starts women thinking of perfume ship Banquet of the Methodist Youth Fellowship at the Stover Methodist Church last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Linn and Mrs. Ella Evans visited Sunday at Cole Camp at the E. W. Balke home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Boxward and son, Kent, Lawrence, Kan., Genevieve Balke, Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Balke, Sedalia.

Randy and Jill Price, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Price, Fairfield, accompanied their grandfather, Edgar Hackler, to Kansas City on Monday. They left for Taylor, Mo., to spend the week in the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hackler and their cousin, Jimmy.

bonnet if there's just the same old baseball bat fragrance to wear with it?

Lead 'em to the counters ladies. Point out the bottle. Call their secretaries or leave baffling notes at their shops. If all else fails, have it delivered to their sweat shops, c.o.d. Let them figure it out.

For, to go with your new spring outfit, your new complexion, your new haircut, you really need a new fragrance.

One spot on the counter to which you might lead your lead-footed male is the one where there's violet perfume. A famous violet fragrance now comes out in a purse-sized flacon in a purple moire case that would slide right into a handbag with no fuss at all. And the tab won't cause your husband to look at you reproachfully.

Hollander Club Speaker At Versailles

By Mrs. Charles Harris
VERSAILLES — Arnold Breebaart, Blendaal, Holland, was guest speaker on the program at the noon luncheon of the Kiwanis Club on Monday. He gave a very interesting talk on the part an airplane plays in delivering his ship and cargo to its destination.

Mr. Breebaart is a native of Holland and is a pilot for Dutch World Airlines (KLM). Mr. and Mrs. Breebaart are guests of Mrs. Effie LeHuquet in Versailles. They will return to Holland soon and from there Mr. Breebaart will spend three years in Indonesia as a pilot.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Snyder of Meriam, Kan., were guests for the weekend of Mrs. F. C. Thorpe and Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Otten.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bennett and sons, Mickey and Lindell, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Bennett in Clinton on Sunday.

A general meeting of all members of the Versailles Chamber of Commerce will be held Monday night, April 25, in the city hall. Supt. Earl R. Whittaker will discuss the proposed bond issue for a new high school building.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Mitchell, Lake Road 14, received a message Saturday of the sudden death of their daughter, Mrs. Lorene Cochran, Kansas City. They left immediately for Kansas City. Funeral services will be held from the Newcomer Chapel on Monday p.m.

At a meeting of the officers of the Versailles High School alumni association, held Monday night, plans were made for the annual banquet and dance to honor the graduating class of 1955.

Ten year classes will be recognized as in the past. The date set for the affair is May 14. A dance will follow the banquet at the high school auditorium with music furnished by the Keyton Orchestra of Fayette. Special plans are being made for the reunion of the class of 1925. Officers elected were J. C. Garrison, president; Jim Hunter, first vice-president; Linda Otten, second vice-president; Mrs. Loretta Pace, secretary, and Sam Guenther, treasurer.

Four used in cake-making should always be measured carefully. Sift the flour onto a piece of waxed paper, then spoon lightly into the measuring cup and level off with a spatula.

DOUBLE DUTY—This "convertible" automobile owned by Alfred Perlman, president of the New York Central, takes to the railroad tracks near Weehauken, N. J. The car is equipped to ride on rails as well as roads so that Perlman's inspection trips are made easier. The car rides the tracks on oversized pneumatic tires, and has miniature flanged railroad wheels in front and back to keep the car on the tracks. Its speed on the rails is supposedly 35 mph.

Green Ridge Boys, Advisor Attend Columbia Convention

On Thursday morning, April 21, three FFA boys and Mr. Douglass, the Green Ridge FFA chapter advisor, motored to Columbia to attend the State FFA Convention. The three FFA boys were Guy Tittsworth and Gene Alderman, who were the delegates, and Lyman Kaiser, Morris Hinken, who played in the State FFA Band, had driven down on Wednesday evening to attend practice sessions.

The group arrived in Columbia about ten o'clock and registered. They stayed in Hotel D' Cot, a gymnasium filled with double-decked beds set side by side. They spent the rest of the morning looking over the campus of Missouri University. In the afternoon they took a guided tour of the KOMU-TV station at Columbia. Douglass then drove them out to the Missouri University Farm, most Dairy Farms which manages the J. C. Penney Guernsey dairy herd of about 300 head. The herd was given to them by J. C. Penney.

They returned to Columbia in time to attend the parliamentary procedure contest in the Waters Hall auditorium. It began at 4

Japan Buys Animals

KOBE, Japan, (AP) — Forty-three jungle animals, valued at more than $100,000 arrived yesterday from Kenya, Africa, for Japanese zoos and circuses.

Arrived on the noon bus, toured more of the campus. In the meantime Robert Upton had arrived with his parents to attend the night session.

The night session began with the opening ceremony and music by the State Band. Principal speaker for the evening was William D. Gunter, national FFA president, who gave an interesting talk about the opportunities and advantages of FFA. After music by the State FFA chorus, the State Farmer Degree was conferred upon 258 outstanding FFA boys. The boys from the Green Ridge FFA chapter receiving this degree were Robert Upton and George Buchholz. Allen King, former state president, then presented the Star District and Star State Farmer awards for 1955. Star State Farmer for 1955 was William Mathis of the Mindin FFA chapter. After the election of new officers, the second session came to a close with the closing ceremony.

The Green Ridge delegation returned home, arriving in Green Ridge at 1 a.m. Saturday.

The third and final session was held on Saturday morning. Highlights of this session were the committee reports, installation of officers, and an address by William Gunter.

BENSON INSPECTS DROUGHT AREA—On an inspection tour of drought conditions in the Rocky Mountain region, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson examines dust found near Denver, Colo. He also was to visit drought areas in southwestern Kansas, northwestern Oklahoma, the Texas Panhandle and eastern New Mexico to find ways to attack the reason and causes of crop-destroying and land-damaging dust storms. OWNERS CAN HELP DOGS LIVE LONGER—SAYS EXPERT!

NEW DOG FOOD—NEW FEEDING PLAN—COMBAT "HIDDEN HUNGER"

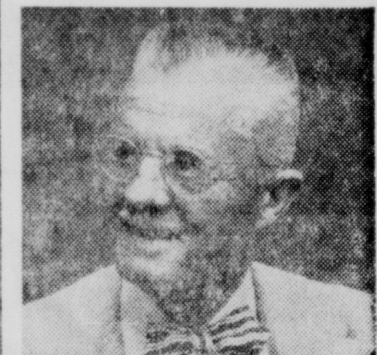

Help Add Happy, Healthy Years to Pet's Life!

"Just as humans now have greater life expectancy through discoveries in nutrition...so a dog's life expectancy can be increased by twice-a-day feeding of essential nutritional elements," says Walter Kendall whose studies in canine nutrition have covered 20 years.

"Your dog is an important member of your family. Your dog's life, health, happiness and good nature are directly affected by WHAT and WHEN you feed him. Every dog, large or small, working dog or house pet, requires certain nutritional elements in his food...and should have them TWICE A DAY...morning and evening. "To help you feed your cherished pet properly, I have created Walter Kendall 'fives' Dog Foods containing 33 ingredients for longer life PLUS five different flavors to excite the dog's appetite and aid digestion. Walter Kendall 'fives' Dog Foods come in two forms... 'fives' BISCUITS for BREAKFAST... 'fives' KIBBLED for DINNER. And every package of 'fives' you buy—Biscuits or Kibbled—has 5 different flavors... Meat, Cheese, Vegetable, Ginger and Charcoal... for the flavor and variety that your dog wants at every meal!"

WINS BEST OF BREED AWARD AT 7½ YEARS

Champion Killiercrankie MacTavish

Started on "fives" Dog Food early in life, Champion Killiercrankie MacTavish won five points on championship at his first show. He has been fed "fives" regularly ever since, and now at 7½ years old he continues an active winner in the show ring. His shiny coat, bright eyes, sound teeth attest to his health.

"HIDDEN HUNGER" OFTEN UNDETECTED BY OWNER UNTIL TOO LATE!

Are you unconsciously depriving your dog of the essential nutritional ingredients necessary to long life and good health? Lack of these ingredients may not show up for months or years; yet, day by day his system is being robbed trying to combat insidious "hidden hunger" You can protect him...can help him live out his full life in healthy, happy activity by feeding him Walter Kendall "fives" Biscuits for breakfast and Walter Kendall "fives" Kibbled for dinner. In this way you know that your dog is getting the nutrition he requires because Walter Kendall "fives" Biscuits and "fives" Kibbled contain 33 essential ingredients!

MAKE THE "fives" 5-DAY TRIAL!

Feed your dog a handful of "fives" Biscuits every breakfast, a dish of "fives" Kibbled every night...for 5 days. You'll see for yourself he shows new interest in his food, begs for breakfast, looks forward to dinner.

"fives" BISCUITS FOR BREAKFAST

Crisp, crunchy—finest possible chewing exercise for your dog. Easy and quick to feed. Try a handful of "fives" Biscuits for your dog...just as you sit down to breakfast.

"fives" KIBBLED FOR DINNER

Feed him Kibbled...smaller than biscuits...mixes easily with water or milk or leftovers yet never becomes mushy. Yes, "fives" is a complete food...your dog needs nothing more.

NEW 5-FLAVOR COMPLETELY DIFFERENT DOG FOOD NOW COMES TO TOWN!

The unique and original idea in "fives" Dog Foods is 5 flavors in every package—Meat, Cheese, Vegetable, Ginger and Charcoal. Dogs, like humans, want flavor and variety.

"Fives" Dog Foods give your dog complete flavor-variety in every package. No need to risk "hidden hunger" by switching to other brands in a search for variety...use "fives" Dog Foods.

For more than 20 years West Coast dog owners have been buying Walter Kendall Dog Foods. "Fives" today are the West Coast's top selling baked dog food. Bright red and green packages of Walter Kendall "fives" Dog Foods are now featured in grocery, pet supply and feed stores here and in surrounding territories in a special introductory offer.

Walter Kendall asks owners to compare "fives"

Founder of Kendall Foods, Incorporated, Walter Kendall, said yesterday, "Compare 'fives' with the dog food now in your home!" Look at the "fives" package. See the long list of essential ingredients. See the five colors—five shapes that identify the five flavors.

Premature Driver

DETROIT (AP)—While his parents slept, John Carroll, 10, took the family car for a spin. Police spotted what at first appeared to be a driver-less vehicle and intercepted it.

"I knew I could drive from watching my father," Johnny told them proudly.

Officers drove the boy the mile and a half back home and advised him to wait six years before demonstrating his ability again.

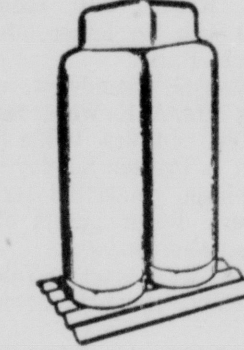

Warm Mail Box

HAVEN, Kan. (AP)—Neighbors smiled when they saw the mail box at the Ray Tuttle farm clad in a jacket with fur collar. But it wasn't to keep the mail box warm, explained the Tuttles. They'd found the jacket lying in the road, and figured the loser must come by again and reclaim it.

Spread bread with butter and sprinkle with celery seeds; cut into strips and place on a cookie sheet. Toast in a hot oven. Good with tea for that four o'clock pickme-up.

You're right! You need CLOROX to get linens really white and clean!

CLOROX makes linens more than white... it makes them sanitary, too!

Experience has proved to homemakers throughout the country that their laundry is cleaner when it's Clorox-clean. For Clorox not only removes dinginess, stains, even scorch and mildew... it disinfects as well! No other home laundering product equals Clorox in germ-killing efficiency!

And, when you launder with Clorox, you'll notice your linens are fresh smelling, even when you dry indoors. That's because Clorox deodorizes. Clorox conserves your linens, too... it's extra gentle, free from caustic, made by an exclusive, patented formula. And Clorox contains no undissolved particles to damage your wash, washer, or dryer!

CLOROX can help you enjoy a cleaner kitchen, too!

Yes, your kitchen tile, porcelain, and plastic paneling will be brighter, fresher... and sanitary, too, when you use Clorox in routine cleaning. For Clorox removes stains, deodorizes, disinfects... all without scrubbing! Hundreds of public health departments recommend the Clorox type of disinfection. You'll find many more house-cleaning hints on the label.

You get all these benefits in a Clorox-clean wash!

1. Snowy-white linens... Clorox removes gray and yellow dinginess.
2. Bright fast colors... Clorox removes dulling film.
3. Lovely-looking linens... Clorox removes ugly stains, even scorch and mildew.
4. Fresh, clean-smelling linens... Clorox deodorizes.
5. Sanitary linens... Clorox is the most efficient germ-killer of its kind.

When it's CLOROX-clean...it's SAFER for family health!

Young Moderns Want Rooms Of Sophisticated Styles

By VIVIAN BROWN
Associated Press Beauty Editor

If you're planning a room for your young modern, better put some sophistication into it, says Patricia Harvey, member of the American Institute of Decorators. She explains:

"Young people have gone modern. They love unfussy furniture and sophisticated fabrics. Just hand them a bunch of swatches and you'll be amazed at the good taste they display."

Miss Harvey's most recent decorative venture with young moderns was a couple of rooms planned for sisters aged 16 and 17, using this scheme selected by the girls:

... Grass cloth walls of off-ivory shade, matching draperies with black, chrome yellow and cinnamon in a free form design. Two couches of cinnamon tweed with throw pillows of black and chrome yellow felt in round, square and triangular shapes. Celadon green rug. Mahogany desk with black stain-proof mica top.

Book shelves line one wall over a cupboard unit planned to hold bedclothes and linens. Give young people pretty linens—solid or print and they'll adore tending their bed clothes, she says.

Younger girls like pink, Miss Harvey says. She did a room in pink, cherry red and white for two under-15s. The floor of vinyl pink and white was topped with a cherry red area rug. Simple modern furniture designed by Paul McCobb was washed down to its original birch and painted pink and white. A pink cotton bed throw had a cherry red dust ruffle of glosheen cotton, a pillow sham had a cherry ruffle. The bed headboard was upholstered in white plastic and its wooden frame painted pink. Draperies were of inexpensive but unusual woven ribbon fabric. She framed a picture in white burlap and painted the scroll wire around it pink. An ice cream chair was painted cherry red and a pillow of pink iridescent cotton taffeta inserted in the heart back of the chair.

Ready-made ensemble may be found to make the decorating job easier if you prefer.

Business Back To the Spring Peak In 1953

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Business recovery has brought industry and trade roughly back to the peak they climbed in the spring of '53. The month of May could see new records set in many lines.

The feeling that the recovery is firmly based grows among businessmen. This leads an increasing number to look for good business all through this year, giving 1955 an excellent chance of being the best year yet.

May gives every sign of confirming this belief.

As for the longer pull, President Eisenhower says he's had no "earnest warnings" from his economic advisers of a possible downturn in the second half of the year. What his advisers apparently worry about most is the chance that the business upsurge might tempt the country to "get into a false rush and then fall back."

Warnings against such overconfidence and speculation have come recently from Washington. The Federal Reserve Board has raised margin regulations for the second time this year making it necessary to put up more cash when buying stocks. Federal agencies in the housing field have put a mild curb on mortgage credit.

The big question worrying businessmen has been: What will happen if the home-building fever cools, if auto production stops its record pace?

One answer is offered today by the economists at the Chase Manhattan Bank, New York's largest. They look for a further moderate rise in consumer spending, which is now gratifyingly ahead of last year. And they expect business itself to increase its spending for new plants and especially for new equipment.

"Over the year as a whole," the bank's economists think, "rising trends in these two areas should, if continued, more than outweigh the easing in autos and housing."

Girl's Case Diagnosed As Definitely Polio After Vaccine Shot

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)—Three-year-old Vicki Barrett, who became ill six days after getting her first Salk vaccine inoculation, has been diagnosed as a definite polio case.

Her physician said yesterday she is suffering from the nonparalytic type of polio and is coming along well. The doctor, who requested that his name not be used, said the girl may have had the polio virus before being inoculated. He said she became ill six days after the serum was administered and the common incubation period is 14 days.

Dr. W. R. Giedt of the State Health Department said in Seattle that the vaccine used for the girl was supplied by Cutter Laboratories in Berkeley, Calif.

The use of Cutter vaccine has been ordered halted while authorities investigate whether a faulty batch of the serum or mere coincidence was responsible for polio cases occurring in some children inoculated with it.

Press Agent Loses Suit Involving Dismissal

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Press agent Russell Birdwell has lost his $400,000 suit against producer Paul Gregory and actor Charles Laughton, involving his dismissal as publicist for "The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial."

Birdwell charged he was dismissed in violation of an oral contract but Superior Judge Paul Nourse ruled yesterday that the contract could be terminated at will under California law.

Road Commission Says Cuspidors Are Needed

DETROIT (AP)—The Wayne County Road Commission is giving the manager of the new ultra-modern City-County building a bad time.

The commission brought along 100 battered brass cuspidors when it moved into its shiny new quarters.

The commission insists the spittoons are needed.

Building Manager Charles G. Okman plans an informal conference with County Road Engineer Leroy C. Smith.

Thinks GOP Will Back Ike On Formosa

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.) said today he thinks most Senate Republicans will back any decisions President Eisenhower makes in dealing with the Chinese Communists and the Formosa situation.

Capehart said in an interview he could not go along with his colleague Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), who proposed yesterday a resolution to put the Senate on record that no government official "may take part in any conference" which might result in the transfer of any territory to a Communist state.

Jenner's resolution, which would be merely an expression of Senate opinion, obviously was prompted by the increased prospect of some kind of talks between the United States and Communist China aimed at relaxing tensions in the Formosa Strait.

Actress Is Recovering From Kidney Ailment

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Movie actress Katy Jurado was recovering today from a kidney ailment that forced her off a movie yesterday.

She was taken to St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica for observation. Her doctors said she probably would be able to return to work next week.

Mrs. Lavina Fugal

Modest Widow From Utah Is Mother of '55

PLEASANT GROVE, Utah (AP)—A modest Utah widow, mother of eight grown children, left for New York City today to accept the title of American Mother of the Year.

She is Mrs. Lavina Christensen Fugal, 75, who knew hunger as a child and since has shrugged off adversity to raise a family and become a teacher, homemaker, churchwoman, farm leader and grower of prize flowers.

Mrs. Fugal modestly accepted congratulations from her neighbors for the honor and said "a wonderful husband and eight unusual children" were responsible.

A daughter of Danish immigrants, Mrs. Fugal obtained a teachers certificate at 18 and began giving lessons in Pleasant Valley schools. In 1900 she married Jens Peter Fugal, who died in 1945.

"Mom could get work out of a broomstick," one of her daughters said. "And she made that work fun. She was liberal with praise. But when we needed punishment we got it."

Mrs. Fugal, though busy with family and church work, has served as director of the Utah County Farm Bureau; president of the local farm bureau; board member of the Utah County Fair and the Utah State Fair; chairman of the Home and Community Department of the Utah State Farm Bureau; and a member of the Utah County Planning Board.

She outlines her theory of raising children this way:

"I didn't believe in too many do's and don'ts. I tried to make the chores fun. And we always worked together as a family."

"When it was time to pick fruit,
